Suzanne Morrow Is Skating Champ

VANCOUVER — Suzanne Morrow, the blonde little miss from Toronto, today wears the Canadian women's figure skating crown for the third consecutive time.

Performing Saturday with near-perfect spins and leaps, she went on to victory over Vevi Smith of Toronto, who placed second. Jane Kirby of Ottawa was third.

The senior men's title was won by Peter Firstbrook of Toronto, who dethroned Roger Wickson of Vancouver, defending champion. Wickson placed second. Billy Lewis, Vancouver, was third.

A great majority of the sound-making boards used by larger piano makers are made from B.C. Sitka spruce.

COMBINE WORK, PLAY—Hockey-playing paratroopers of the PCCLI prepare to board an RCAF plane to keep a date for a hockey game at Vernon, B.C. To boost their number of "drops," the men parachuted in. Standing, left to right, are: Lieut. B. E. Harper, manager; Cpl. E. Walushka, Pte. P. A. Cripps, Cpl. G. C. Schamehorn, Sgt. L. C. Roe, Pte. C. L. Campion, Pte. H. K. Grouette, and Lt.-Col. N. G. Wilson-Smith. Kneeling are Ptes. W. LaRoche and B. Chow Kam. (CP PHOTO FROM NATIONAL DEFENCE)

Ski Heil—

By MARY MARGARET BULGER

Superb weather and skiing conditions attracted more than 30 planksters to the main slope on Hays Mountain Sunday afternoon. Among visiting skiers was a group which usually skis on Mt. Oldfield. A lot of respect was paid by them to the facilities of Prince Rupert Ski Club, especially the 600-foot tow.

Other visitors were Pat Berry and Lillian Smith—non-skiers yet, but considering it—Howard Haugen, Jack Strand and his 10-year-old son, Ronald. Rumor has it that Jack, an old-time skier and jumper from Norway, may be next year's jumping instructor on Mt. Hays.

Haugen, who has just returned from the south, is sporting the very latest in ski equipment. Certainly got stuck in that sport shop, didn't you, Howie?—But, really, his boots are fascinating! Among those trying out their ski-legs for the first or second time were Jessie and Hilda Potterton, Dave Knowles and Bob Cowper.

Newest members are Ronald Black and Donald Martinsson, both showing potential skiing power.

George Mostad, one of the club's instigators and strongest supporters—also club treasurer—was honored with a farewell party and presentation in the main lodge Saturday night.

President Foster Husoy presented George with an electric razor on behalf of club members and a large Good Luck cake was ceremoniously cut and eaten.

But George has turned the tables on the club. He isn't leaving yet. Force of circumstances and temptation are keeping him here until March 15.

It has been learned from re-
