The Tortures of Dyspepsia Corrected by "Fruit-a-lives"

St. MARTIN'S, N.B.

"For two years, I suffered tortures from Severe Dyspepsia. I had constant pains after eating; pains down the sides and back; and horrible bitter stuff often came up in my mouth.

I tried doctors, but they did not help me. But as soon as I started taking "Fruit-a-lives", I began to improve and this medicine, made of fruit juices, relieved me when everything else failed."

ONE BIG UNION IS HEARD FROM AT THE COUNCIL MEETING

A letter written by J. H. Burrows, secretary of the One Big Union, to the City Council and read last night drew attention to the large number of accidents at the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills of late and stated that in two cases where death had resulted no inquests had been held. It requested that the Council take action with a view to securing an inquiry into the cause of the accidents and the establishment of preventive measures.

The letter was ordered to be forwarded to the Provincial Government agent with a request for information.

LETTERS AND CHECKS BACK FROM THE SEA

The mail which went down on the S. S. Princess Sophia on the voyage from Skagway, October 24, 1918, has been recovered and forwarded to its original destination. A day or two ago Stewart & Mobley received a registered letter containing checks to the amount of $4,600 which had gone down on the ill fated ship. They were forwarded by F. H. Mobley Co., of Atlin to Stewart & Mobley of Prince Rupert, and were all in good condition.

The Daily News received yesterday a tax sale list sent a year ago from the government agent at Atlin for publication in this paper. It was rather badly obliterated although the address on the envelope was not much injured. As soon as the agent heard of the ship going down he forwarded duplicate copies which were duly published last autumn.

"THE CALLAUX CASE" AT THE WESTHOLME

The notorious "Caillaux Case" of France has at last been put on the screen. This sensational international drama of ambition, intrigue, love and war, which for years has filled column after column in the public press, will be shown to picture lovers of this city at the Westholme Theatre for two days, beginning tonight.

Everybody remembers the sensation caused a few years ago, when the beautiful Mme. Henriette Caillaux entered the office of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Paris Figaro, and shot him to death for exposing the political and financial trickeries of her husband.

"SHE HIRED A HUSBAND" AT EMPRESS THEATRE

At the Empress Theatre this evening the big feature is "She Hired a Husband." It features Priscilla Dean and is reported to be an interesting play.

"The Fight for Millions" continues and there is an Arbuckle comedy.

When an invitation is sent it should be on a natty card. We have the very latest in gold deckle edge just like they use in New York—Daily News Job Department.

Law is Found by City Solicitor to Be Defective in Many Particulars.

The bylaw which had been passed some time ago by the City Council and enforced and then on the protest of a citizen referred to the acting city solicitor for report will be repealed at once. A resolution giving effect to the intention of the City Council was passed last night at the regular meeting following the reading of a letter from W. E. Williams in which the weakness of the bylaw was pointed out.

The bylaw dealt with the licensing of barmaids and those engaged in dispensing refreshments and engaged in and around pool-rooms and bowling alleys.
