SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

More interest has been shown recently in fishing for dogfish. The Kaara II, Capt. H. Novik, delivered 26,600 pounds to Vancouver recently at 25 cents a pound. The trip from Vancouver to the Queen Charlotte Sound fishing grounds and return took 10 days. The Kaia, Capt. O. Stegavig, left here Monday to fish for dogs.

Fisheries Patrol Cruiser Laurier, Capt. W. Redford, arrived in port yesterday. Capt. Redford mentioned how mild the weather had been this winter but told of one trip from the west coast of Vancouver Island when he was forced to pull into harbor. Even at that the northeast gale blowing made it uncomfortable aboard the ship. That was about the middle of January. The Laurier is here in connection with the meeting of fisheries inspectors.

A false alarm was sounded Tuesday afternoon about 4:15, when coal being unloaded from a boat struck the alarm wires at the CNR dock.

CPR steamer Princess Norah, Capt. G. D. Hughes, arrived from the north at 3 p.m. yesterday and sailed a couple of hours later for Vancouver. Embarking here were Mrs. L. H. McTaggart, C. Candy, E. Reid, C. Anderson, W. H. Anderson, D. J. Thorndyck, H. Puchen and E. Hockham.

Canadian National ss. Prince George docked here at 11:15 yesterday from Vancouver, Westview and Ocean Falls, enroute to Ketchikan for which port she sailed at midnight and will return here tonight southbound. Disembarking here from Vancouver were P. A. Miquelon, Harry Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Frizell and child, Mrs. J. P. Brown, D. Fisher, Mrs. H. S. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rose, E. P. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Anderson, Sam Joy, I. N. Cook, C. D. Andrews, W. McWilliams, Mrs. William Sutherland, Miss Joyce Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. N. Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McDonald.

J. MacDonald and M. O. Kullander, Forestry Branch, returned by air from the Queen Charlotte Islands yesterday. They had been on an inspection trip.

Mrs. H. B. Rochester sails tonight on the Prince George for Vancouver after spending the past three weeks here.

Canadian Drive Spurs Interest In Emigration

LONDON (CP)—British residents are responding to Canada's all-out drive for new settlers at a rate of more than 700 applicants a day.

The current rush has been spurred by the Canadian government's offer of assisted sea and air passages. But most would-be emigrants say the air seeking escape from the continued burdens of austerity, restrictions on housing and lack of opportunity.

Officials of the Canadian immigration department in London said they were being swamped with applications from all parts of the United Kingdom. And they expect an increased flow of inquiries with the introduction of the assisted sea-passage scheme this month.

Many of the prospective settlers are persons who sought refuge in Britain during and immediately after the war. After being driven from their homes and deprived of their possessions by the German invasion, they are anxious for an opportunity of re-establishing themselves. Their attitude is that if there is another war they would rather be in Canada than Europe.

Of the large groups interviewed by Canadian immigration officers, most of them mentioned the hope of finding better jobs and the difficulties of housing as their reason for wanting to leave.

ANXIOUS FOR HOME
"I've been looking for a home for more than two years," said Frank Harding, London-born carpenter, who plans to settle in Ontario.

"I am willing to build a house with my own bare hands if they'll only let me. After all, it's my trade and I can do it. In Canada, at least, I shan't need a permit to do the obvious."

Kenneth Hammond, a Birmingham businessman, said he was going to Canada "because I can't see much future for my trade here." There were too many controls.

"But I am willing to try my hand at anything else, if necessary," Hammond added. "I'll go wherever there is a good job at fair wages. I shall make my home where I make my living."

Farm-worker Jack Osborne of Bristol said he was migrating to Ontario to make a career of farming. His wife and 15-month-old daughter are going with him. "To be anything more than a farm laborer in this country it seems that one has to go to the right schools," said Osborne. "I have a job lined up on a farm at Gormley, near Toronto, and I have every hope of becoming a farm foreman. To do that in England I would probably need a degree in agriculture."

George Dibb returned by yesterday's plane from a business trip to Vancouver.

Prince Rupert Rotary Club was in business session at its weekly luncheon today. President A. B. Brown was in the chair.

F. E. Anfield, Indian superintendent, is expected to return today after visiting at Port Simpson and other villages.

Compromise Method Secret of Success

SASKATOON—"If women compromise, a career and marriage do mix," says Dr. Mary Anna Nicholson. "And women compromise better than men."

Twenty years a medical practitioner in Saskatoon, Dr. Nicholson and her husband, Dr. Norman Wright, are leaving for Bridgetown, Barbados. Dr. Nicholson expects to specialize in anaesthesia cases there.

She is a graduate of the University of Toronto and a former president of the Canadian Federation of Medical Women.

Her chief interests are anthropology and the racial customs and status of women.
