No.1 Hoop Ref Here

To conduct a basketball referees' clinic here, "Wink" Willcox, senior referee of the British Columbia Amateur Basketball Association, will arrive in the city by air tomorrow afternoon and will remain here until Monday's plane.

Not only referees but officials and possibly some players are expected to attend Mr. Willcox's clinic sessions which are designed to promote better understanding between players, coaches, referees and spectators. All phases of rules, particularly from the referee standpoint, will be discussed.

OBJECTION!—Chicago Black Hawks got a little riled in Toronto Saturday night after referee Hugh McLean ordered Hawk coach Ebenezer Goodfellow off the bench for jeering him. Hawks started to gang up around McLean and Roy Conacher gave the ref a push. That cost Roy a game misconduct penalty, which carries an automatic $50 fine. Leafs won, 6-3. (CP PHOTO)

Kitimat Unable To Get Hero So Are Out Of International Series

A second Prince Rupert team has been thrown into the international round-robin basketball tournament starting here tonight to replace the Kitimat team, which was prevented from getting here by air because of bad flying conditions. Arrangements had been made for the village team to come on the Prince George from Butedale but they thought it would be better to fly.

The second team, to be known in the tournament as Rupert II, is coached by Angus McFee, who says they are out to beat the Jets in the league opener tonight. On the team are Bob Gill, Tiny Carlson, Ted Arney, Mel Thompson, Harold Marshall, Dave Dumas, Ed. Ciccone, Don McDonald, Mel Holstad and Mickey Webster.

The Jets, coached by Alec Bill, are Don Scherk, Sid Scherk, Art Olsen, Ray Spring, Reg Lavigne, Joe Davis, Sonny Beynon, Jim Platen, Rupert Holstad and Herb Moran.

Queen Charlotte Airlines made another attempt this morning to get the Kitimat team, but Pilot Roy Moulton was forced back from Douglas Channel by zero-visibility and freezing rain. Hops has since been abandoned of getting the team to Prince Rupert.
