remember when? The late Frank Calder, president of the National Hockey League, limited NHL games to 60 minutes, 10 years ago today. The overtime rule was introduced to meet wartime conditions, enabling teams to catch trains, and has since remained in force with the result a large number of tie games have already been played this season.

Mansons and G.&A. Squeeze Out Wins

(By ROALD FENESS)

In the senior twin hoop bill last night, Rainmakers surged ahead making six points on two baskets and two penalty shots in just 45 seconds without a reply from Manson's. But even with the magnificent playing of Young and Tait, Manson's came up from behind to edge out a 53-41 win at the final whistle.

Lead was in the hands of the high school band who kept it for half the game. But they lapsed for about two minutes. That was all the jewellers needed.

With Olson playing outstanding ball, Manson's plowed ahead. The game was fast with tempers flaring often and good refereeing helped to make it a thriller for the few fans attending.

Olsen was high for Manson's with 12; Young, for Rainmakers, potted 11 points.

PIERCE TERRIFIC

The second bill, was practically upset as Gordon & Anderson found still opposition in CCC 300, but edged out a nine-point victory, 55-46, with the terrific scoring of Pierce.

The Harware gang took the whole game time to get started and even then their winning was questioned. Pierce was their mainstay of the game, coming up with an amazing score of 28 points. He was everywhere, always making his shots count.

Ratchford and Dumas were stalwarts for the Pulp Mill cagers, with Marshall pulling his weight on defence.

Meanwhile, there is a rumor from the public that senior basketball here isn't up to its usual standard. A slight shake-up may result from a meeting of the Basketball Association tonight.

Scoring

Rainmakers—Young 11, Nickerson 2, Simonson 5, Watson 6, Morrison 8, Ciccone 2, Sather 2, Ford, Letourneau, Tait 5.

Manson's—Olsen 13, Spring 10, McChesney 4, Arney 7, Youngman, Webster 9, Bill 10, Walsh.

All Out For Telkwa Rink

TELKWA—The skating rink "Bee" was an all out occasion with the male population as well as their hired men turning out and helping. Hulton Morris supervised the extension to the warming shacks. Posts were erected on each end of the rink for the purpose of stretching wire.

The young fry, anxious to have a sheet of ice as soon as possible, turned out also.

These added improvements will be an asset to the rink.

Detroit Taking Big Puck Lead

BOSTON (CP)—Detroit Red Wings gained another two points in the National Hockey League standing last night to take a commanding seven-point lead over the running up Toronto Maple Leafs. The Wings made two goals and blanked the Boston Bruins.

Next games will be tonight with Montreal at Chicago and New York at Detroit.

Pep Aplenty in Junior And Medium Cage Play

Fraser & Payne 32; Fashion 21
Manson's 35; Annunciation 13

(By ROSS INGRAM)

Fraser & Payne held Fashion to a scoreless first quarter in last night's intermediate hoop classic to build up an early lead the Shoemen couldn't touch, even though they turned on the heat to gain two points during the balance of the game. Scoring ended 32-31.

Taken completely unawares with score after score by F & P, Fashion woke up in the second quarter with Drake running the gamut, outscoring the winners 10-8 with the help of Dumas on the rebounds and McFarlane supplying the hustle.

In the third quarter, Fashion again outshot and outplayed the winners, 6-5, but could not whittle down the startling first-quarter lead. Heat of the battle was featured in the fourth quarter, both teams in there fast and furious, the shoemen never giving up hope until the final whistle.

Speed and good ball-playing gave Wesch for the winners high scoring honors with 12 points, followed by aggressive Bob Smith and Cristoff, each with eight points.

Possibly, inspiration for the Shoemen came from their brand new red and blue uniforms. Nevertheless, with a few more team encounters, Steve Dumas' Fashions should develop into a winning team. The next time these two cage clubs meet should prove exciting.
