Women's Canadian Club Hears Pulp Mill Head

"It was with malice aforethought that I chose the of the talk tonight. It covers such a large field, it's possibly go astray," confessed Dr. R. H. Ball, general manager of the Columbia Cellulose Company as he started speaking last night to the Women's Canadian Club. His topic was "From Tree to Textile."

Ball took the ladies on an imaginary specially conducted of the plant at Watson Island. He traced the wood from the time the bark is removed with the screening, cooking bleaching of the chips to the time it is turned out a white pulp ready for shipping.
An interesting book of samples of materials made from the pulp was shown to the large audience. These samples included of the latest patterns and used today in the new clothing.

Ball told of the experience being made at the huge plant at Cumberland, British Columbia, where two or three miles of fibre are combined.
Materials were very beautiful, not enough was produced to supply the public so these examples were for sale to employees.

Ball stated that the new products are often sold by the pound, and of by the yard.

Expansion of the mill here is based on the general increase of the use of synthetic fabrics in the world.
Ball stated: "We are in a booming industry and development is catching up on us. The future is bound to increase the very near future."
A large gathering of ladies in the Canadian Legion Hall listened with interest to Dr. Ball.
Mrs. F. E. Anfield, president of the club, was in the chair.

who now 80 paid up members.
The association decided to co-

Wedding on Anniversary

Miss Bernice Steffens, Becomes Bride of Russell Davis

The date of her grandmother's forty-fifth wedding anniversary was chosen by the bride for her own lovely wedding which was solemnized Wednesday evening in the First United Church when Rev. L. G. Sieber united in marriage Bernice Lucille Steffens, older daughter of Mrs. H. Lien of Prince Rupert, and Russell Scott Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D.
Davis of East Braintree, Manitoba.

The bride who was given in marriage by H. Lien, was lovely in a floor-length dress of white satin with long lily-point sleeves.
A net yoke was framed with a ruching of French lace and pearls and the hem was triple-tiered with French lace. Her finger-tip veil fell from a dainty Dutch cap and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride was attended by her only sister Miss Elaine Steffens in a dress of blue nylon net with tiered skirt. Her short veil was held by a tiny crown edged with lily of the valley. She carried a Colonial bouquet of golden-bronze chrysanthemums.

During the signing of the register a solo "Because" was sung by J. A. Teng, accompanied at the organ by Mr. H. A. Pluym.
Groomsmen were Ted Rempel and ushers were H. Rempel and D. Ivesson.

RECEPTION

Following the wedding, at a reception held in the Valhalla Hall, the bridal party received the congratulations and good wishes of many friends.

Guests were received by the bride's mother, Mrs. H. Lien, who wore a dress of medium brown with darker brown accessories.

A beautiful 3-tiered wedding cake which was exquisitely decorated and topped by a silver bell was centred on a cloth of white linen with deep filet crochet.

A toast to the bride was proposed by M. W. Gormely and responded to by the bridegroom.
Ted Rempel proposed a toast to the bridesmaid.

A telegram containing congratulations from friends in Vancouver was read by Mark Hill who was in charge of the formalities of the evening.

Tea and coffee were poured by Miss Evie Rivett and Miss Evelyn Antilla.

Serviteurs were Mrs. Thelma Carlson, Miss June Thornton and Miss Olga Zabudney.

Following the partaking of delicious refreshments the guests enjoyed dancing to the music of Mike Colussi and his accordion.

The happy couple will motor south for a wedding trip and on their return will take up residence in Prince Rupert.

The groom is employed by Columbia Cellulose Company and the bride by the B. C. Forest Service.
