Percy Hughes-Hallett, World Traveller, Retires from CNSS

This week's voyage of the steamer Prince Rupert marks the retirement from service of Canadian National Steamships for Percy Hughes-Hallett, well-known and popular assistant purser, who has reached the retirement age—but it does not mean the end of a colorful career. He will carry on steamboating—or, at least, his association therewith.

Born in Paris, France, March 14, 1886, Mr. Hughes-Hallett's birthday was duly recorded at British Embassy. He belongs to the well-known Hughes-Hallett family who are scattered all over the world. Two of the most distinguished are Rear Admiral C. C. Hughes-Hallett, who commanded the aircraft carrier "Implacable" when she visited Vancouver shortly after the close of the war, and Capt. J. Hughes-Hallett, who had charge of the naval operations at Dieppe, now an A.D.C. to the King.

EDUCATED PRIVATELY
Percy entered the merchant service and served his time as a cadet in sailing ships and visited many out of the way places. On his first voyage he called at St. Helene, thence to Capetown. While in South Africa he made a trip very similar to the recent Royal tour, going as far north as Salisbury in Rhodesia, and next called at Kergueland Island in the Indian Ocean.

In 1905 after a six weeks' unsuccessful attempt to round Cape Horn the ship endeavored to make Port Stanley, Falkland Islands, in distress but was forced to anchor in Falkland Sound. Young Hughes-Hallett and four other members of the crew tried to make Stanley in a lifeboat to get help. The boat was blown out to sea for two days but finally made port all the crew being in an exhausted condition. Later they rejoined the ship and eventually got her safely into Stanley. It was here they rescued R. N. Stuart of the "Kirkhill" when his vessel foundered. They became lifelong friends. Stuart won the Victoria Cross while serving with R.N. in the first war, later commanded many of the Canadian Pacific passenger vessels on the Atlantic, including the "Empress of Britain."

Hughes-Hallett has travelled with him on many occasions.

THRICE AROUND WORLD
After making three trips around the world, Hughes-Hallett obtained a second mate's certificate and operated a pleasure craft in the Mediterranean running between Genoa, Italy to Ajaccio, Corsica, occasionally calling at Monaco. He spent much time, prior to 1914 in the Pacific Coast states at various occupations and was briefly a cowboy, bartender and newspaper reporter.

He started a steeplejack business in Tacoma and it was here he worked with Victor McLaglen, later of moving picture fame. He wrote a couple of short stories for the pulp of those days.

the pen name of Circle Ecks.

Hughes-Hallett came to Canada shortly after the outbreak of the first war. He joined the Army and served overseas with the 47th Battalion. While convalescing in England he received a "command" to appear at Windsor Castle for afternoon tea which was served by the Princesses.

He returned to Canada in 1918 after a brief spell in California and went to Australia to join a schooner which visited Norfolk Island, Levuka and Suva in the Phis, Noume, New Caledonia.

He arrived back in Canada and in 1923 joined the CNSS in Vancouver, was transferred to Montreal in 1927, later to Halifax and then to Saint John. He was appointed agent at Skagway in 1941 and when that office closed he joined the Purser's staff on the coast boats where he remained ever since.

In recent years Mr. Hughes-Hallett has become very well known in Prince Rupert, one of his connections being as a member of Tyee Lodge AF & AM.

Mr. Hughes-Hallett expects to become identified with the Kingsley Navigation Co. at Vancouver after his retirement from Canadian National Steamships.

Commissioner To See Mayor

When Hon. T. C. A. Hislop, New Zealand's High Commissioner to Canada arrives in Prince Rupert March 20, he will make a formal call on Mayor G. W. Rudderham. A letter from the high commissioner's secretary was read last night to city council. City Clerk H. D. Thain was instructed to write the secretary to find out if Mr. Hislop would attend other public functions while here.

Accompanying Mr. Hislop will be his wife and 14-year-old daughter Susan. Council will notify the IOOE of their intended visit.

Is Honored By Knitting Club

A picture of Prince Rupert was presented to Mrs. H. T. Lock as a farewell gift from the Knitting Club recently.

Mrs. Lock, a member of the club, will be making her home in Victoria.

Among the guests at the farewell party for Mrs. Lock were Mrs. R. Cameron, Mrs. L. C. Eby, Mrs. G. Murray, Mrs. A. Ivanson, Mrs. L. L. McLean and Mrs. W. D. McAr.

Birthday of Sonja Ladies

One hundred and twenty-five members and guests gathered at Sons of Norway Hall when Sonja Ladies observed their twentieth anniversary with a birthday banquet.

Mrs. George Morgan, the new president, welcomed the guests and proposed the toast of the evening.

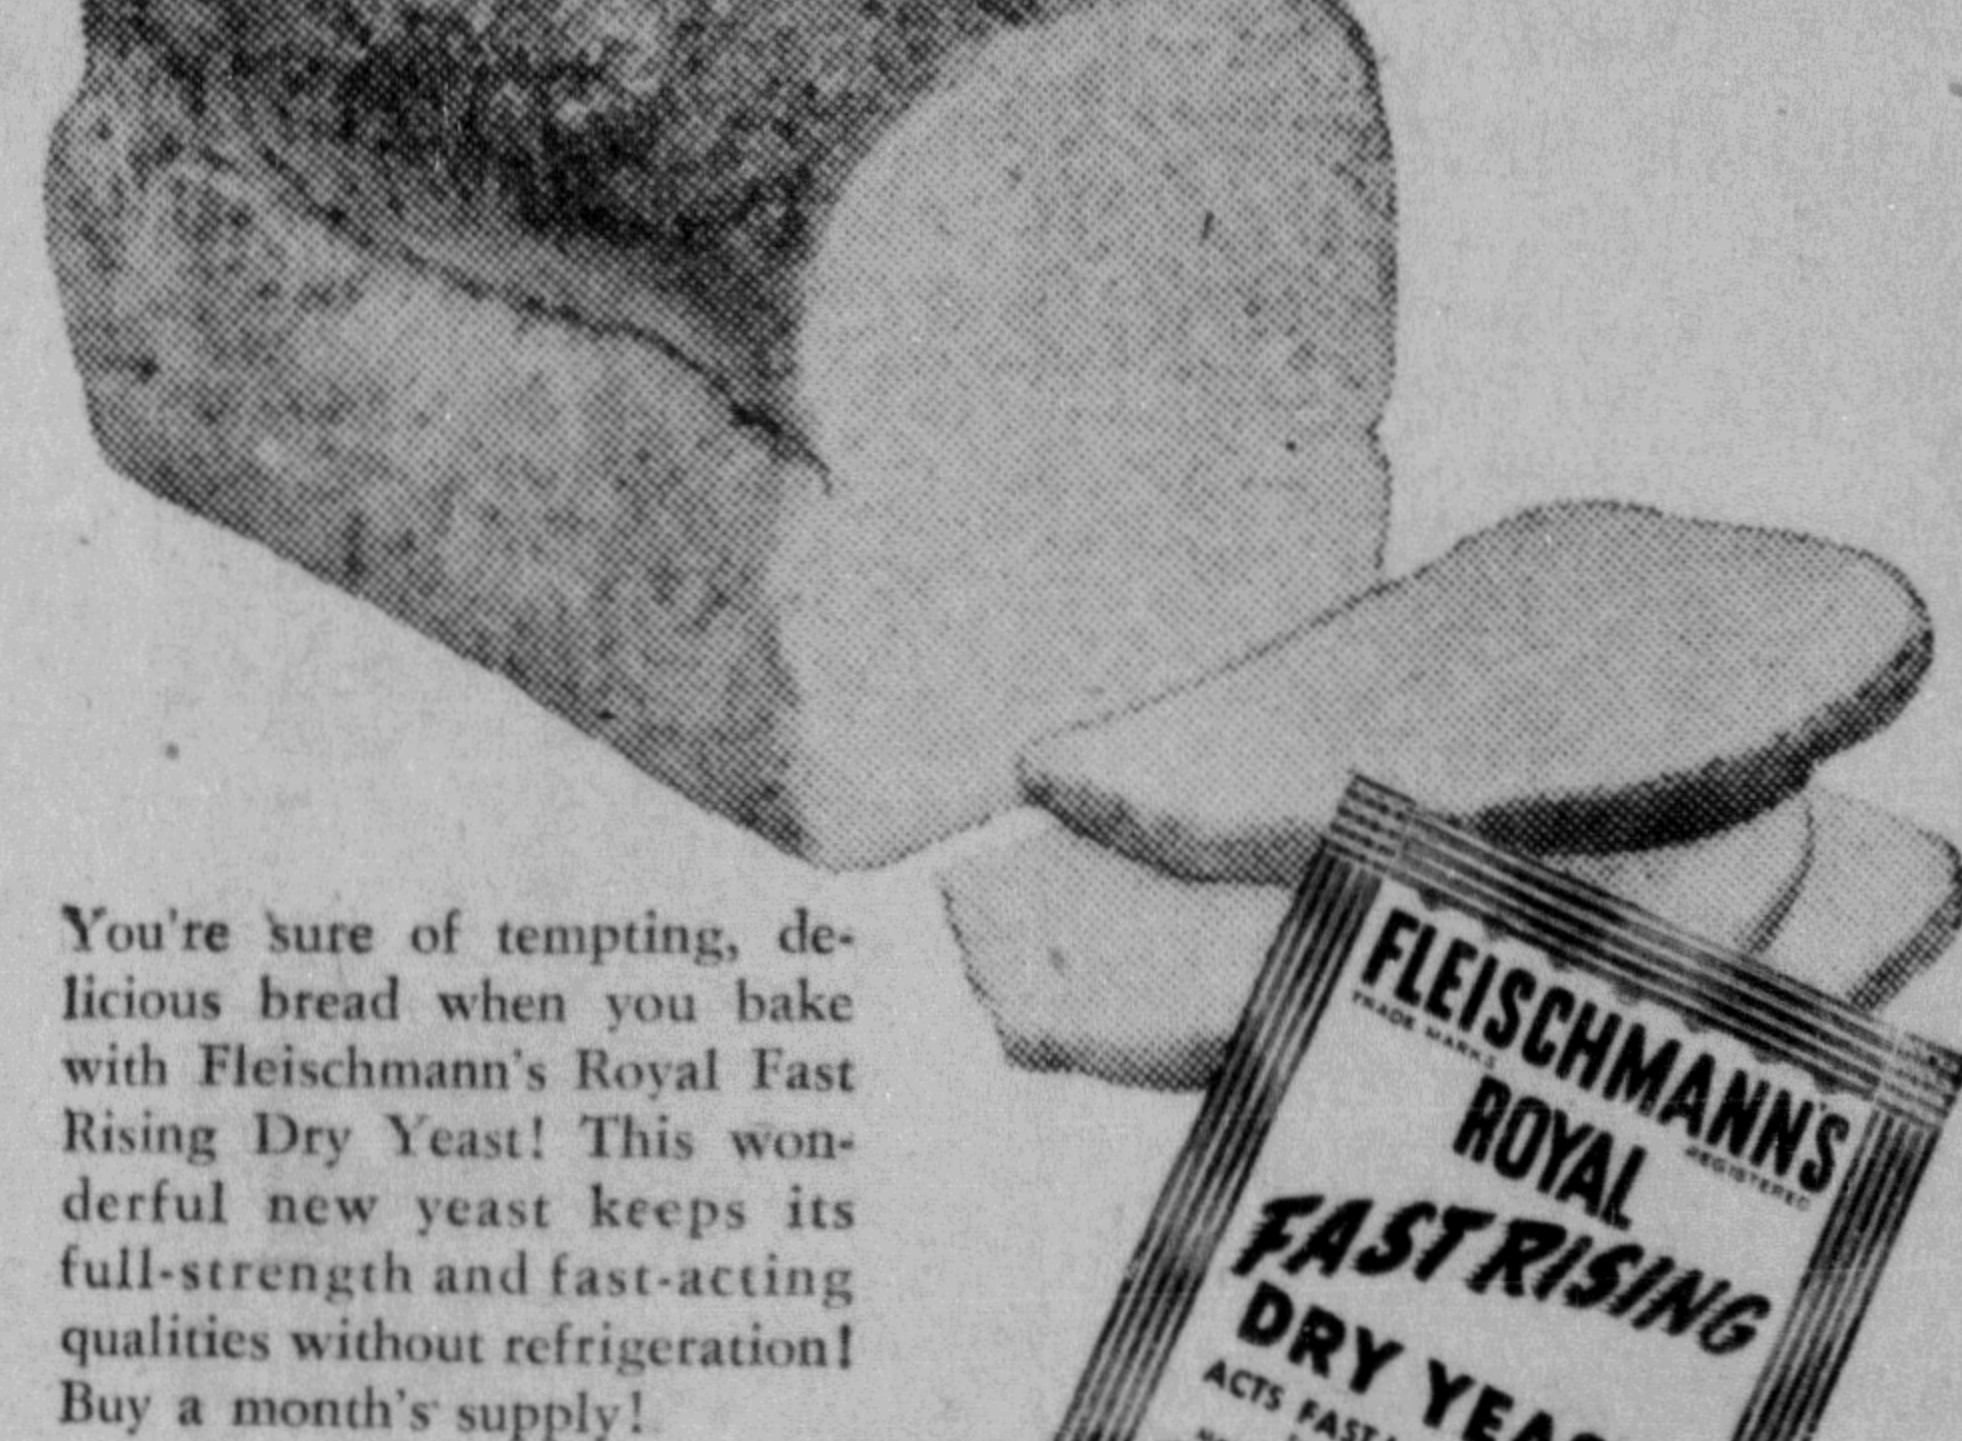

A cold banquet, buffet style, was served, the feature being a handsome birthday cake brought in by Mrs. George Morgan.

While coffee, cake and ice cream were being served a delightful program was presented. Contributing to the program were Robert Jensen and Murray Boas, violin duets, accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Anderson; Sandra Giske, accordion solos; duets by Myrna Knutsen and Margaret Olsen accompanied by Mike Colussi, and accordion solos by Mike Colussi. The musical program concluded with community singing.

The evening concluded with dancing to the music of Mike Colussi and his piano-accordion. Mrs. Armand Lund was in charge of arrangements.

Finer, tastier BREAD

Yours, with wonderful fast-rising DRY Yeast!

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

Combine 3 c. boiling water, 3/4 c. granulated sugar, 4 tps. salt and 1 tbs. shortening; stir until sugar and salt are dissolved and shortening melted; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl 1 c. lukewarm water, 1 tbs. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 3 envelopes Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Stir in cooled sugar-shortening mixture. Combine 5 c. once-sifted bread flour and 5 c. whole wheat or graham flour. Stir about half of the flour into yeast mixture; beat until smooth. Work in remaining flour and add additional bread flour, if necessary, to make a soft dough. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and grease top of dough. Cover and set in a warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough, grease top and again let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough; turn out on lightly-floured board and divide into 4 equal portions; form into smooth balls. Cover lightly with cloth and let rest for 15 mins. Shape into loaves; place in greased loaf pans (4 1/2" x 8 1/2"). Grease tops, cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in hot oven, 400°, for 20 mins., then reduce oven heat to moderate, 350°, and bake about 20 minutes longer.
