Ratify Treaty Without Delay.
Perhaps by the time this appears in print the Canadian Parliament will have ratified the Peace Treaty. We believe they should know what they are ratifying before they take action, but we do not think they should delay. This treaty has been made by the best minds of the British Empire and representatives of the Canadian Government were present and took part in the proceedings. It is for us to ratify it as speedily as possible and thus show that we have confidence in the statesmen who have carried us through so many crises. With men like Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Wilson in consultation, it is hardly for the Canadian Parliament to quibble over little things. The men at the top had all the facts before them. They had all the difficulties to overcome and there is nothing for Canada to do but acquiesce cheerfully.

Miners' League Useful Work.
The Free Miners' League is doing good work in making a collection of minerals for exhibition at this point. This will undoubtedly be the mining centre for the big district north and south, east and west of here, and it is fitting that a mining bureau of some kind should be established. Undoubtedly the exhibit should be made accessible to the public at all times and be kept neat and attractive so that visitors might be encouraged to use it. Eventually it should be part of a big exhibit of the product of the whole district, industrial and natural, including a natural history museum.

King Candidate For the Island.
Mackenzie King is to be a candidate in Prince Edward Island. He was offered the nomination in Glengarry and other places, but he refused to run against any who stood for the same principles as the Liberals. In that he did well. A name does not stand for much. A man may call himself a Liberal and be a died-in-the-wool Tory, and a man may call himself a Conservative and yet be a progressive of the most aggressive type.

GOOD RIDDANCE TO TRAITORS
(By Walt Mason)
We are shipping out the traitors, sending them to other shores, shipping out the agitators, anarchists and kindred bores; and I hope they'll all be potted; all be shipped abroad and swatted—all the freaks whose heads are spotted with the customary sores. If a gent comes o'er the ocean, here to settle down and toil, we will greet him with emotion, treat him as decreed by Hoyle; we will give him all the chances to improve his circumstances, and rejoice as he advances, and with him divide the spoil. As a host we are a model, if the guest's on labor bent; but we have no use for twaddle of a traitorous intent; if the comer's elocution calls for row and revolution 'gainst each sacred institution, we despise that erring gent. In the past we viewed with smiling all the loud and frothy boys, for we found them most beguiling, with their whiskers and their noise; but the war has made us sterner, and the frantic language burner and the blood and crossbones yearner rather peevish us and annoys. So we stop him as he preaches, calling for our country's goat, and we seize him by the breeches and the collar of his coat; so we send him sailing, sailing, o'er the ocean wild and wailing, and he cusses while he's bailing dirty water from his boat.
