Baby Steals Fashion Show

By GLADYS LENNON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The fashion-show model appeared in his mother's arms and practically stole the show. But there were approving nods too for his white headcloth and cotton plaid "demi-suit" with its spirited plaid peeking-horse applique.

It was one of the latest bo-peg fashions for the carriage set, in which designer Hulda Schorr aimed at practicality and comfort combined with smart appearance.

The "demi-suit" and sister's "demi-dress" are two-piece affairs consisting of short, loose-hanging top and plastic-lined slipper-cover-up and bib to match. They are made alike except that sister's top is gathered in a yoke while inverted pleats provide brother with room for movement.

Of interest to mother: The materials are sturdy, color-fast and machine-washable.

For toddlers of one to three years Mrs. Schorr—whose grandchildren are helping to keep her interested in practical angles—has designed a self-help coverall to aid in teaching the children to care for themselves. The drop-seat of the overall-like garment has a belt which fastens in front with two buttons, large enough to be manageable for small fingers. One style is in navy broadcloth with bright red rickrack points edging collar and cuffs; red cross-stitching forms the words "Good Boy" or "Good Girl" across the front.

Colorfully embroidered cobbler aprons in denim are among the protective garments Mrs. Schorr features for the small fry. Three big pockets provide space for carrying childhood treasures. Worn with matching slacks, they make sturdy play outfits.

Then there are attractive snoods to wear over school dresses, also obtainable with matching slacks. One of these, in royal blue, has a big red apple forming its pocket.

For the active three-to-six-year-old, the "petti-dress" is a blouse-and-jumper outfit designed to hold together at the waist. The blouse is joined to a ruffled petticoat which, of course, shows just below the skirt of the jumper.

Whole West Is Booming

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mills Home After Two Months' Motor Tour

Booming business, overcrowding in the city, shortage of labor—it's the same story all through Western Canada and the United States as it is in British Columbia and Prince Rupert, says C. C. Mills, Prince Rupert business man, who returned to the city last night after a two months' motor trip through the United States as far east as Ontario.

Mrs. Mills returned with him as did his sister, Mrs. Ed. Noble of Evergreen, Denver, Colorado, suburb, who is here for a visit.

The Mills went from here to Oshawa, Ontario, where they picked up a new car and started out on the long drive homeward. A couple of days at Niagara were followed by a stop at Chicago where they saw Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stork. Two weeks were spent at Denver with stays at Salt Lake City, Yellowstone Park, Spokane and Seattle following. From Port Angeles they crossed to Victoria, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Orme, and up Vancouver Island to Nanaimo where W. M. Watts was found getting Watts & Nickerson's fine new store ready for opening.

After two weeks in Vancouver they visited in the Okanagan, seeing Dr. and Mrs. John Gibson at Fenticton and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garrett in Vernon.

WINNIPEG—Garbage collectors and other civic workers, 1700 in all, are threatening to go on strike here. They are seeking a 40-hour week and a hospital plan.

Hornsby Eyed As Browns Pilot

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Rogers Hornsby, one of baseball's all-time greats, is among those under consideration for manager of the St. Louis Browns.

But Bill Veck, the new owner of the Browns, says Hornsby, now managing Seattle of the Pacific Coast league, isn't at the top of the list.

"He's one of the best in the country," Veck told a luncheon group yesterday.

Later Veck said he hasn't contacted the Seattle club for permission to talk to Hornsby, and added:

"I haven't made up my mind as to whether Hornsby is the man we want. He is only one of many we have in mind."

SMALL TALK CONCERNING A COMPLIMENT

"You a grandmother? Why, I wouldn't have thought you were 30 yet." "I wonder if he really meant that, or was he just being nice?" "Do I really look like John?"
