DAILY EDITION.

Duke is Tie With Empire.

The Duke of Devonshire is coming here soon and we shall welcome him as one who holds the highest office in the land. He is the representative of the sovereign people of Great Britain and Ireland and is the tie between Canada and the rest of the Empire. The existence of the Governor is the only thing that differentiates the Dominion of Canada from a republic. In all other respects we are a self governing people.

In this country as in every other we are working out a democratic form of government. We believe that we have advanced a long way, but we still have some distance to go before we can feel that the will of the people is always being carried out. Also the will of the people needs a lot of educating before it becomes a will that makes for the best interests of all the people.

Integrity of Belgium Again to be Guaranteed.

The integrity of Belgium is again to be guaranteed. This is a repetition of what happened once before. This time, however, the Monroe Doctrine which has always stood in the way of American action in Europe has been so thoroughly thrown to the winds that it would not be a difficult matter for the republic to step in, always supposing the Irish senators would allow it. We cannot see, however, what use the league of nations is, if it is not to deal with just such cases and to prevent any two or three nations forming treaties of offence or defence.

Dominion Government Seems to be Roused.

It is to be hoped that the Dominion Government will carry out its design to prevent all profiteering in the food and other needs of the people. It is easy to make laws and to declare intentions, but the thing is to act and to do it with consistency and vigor.

Many have been disappointed that the Government has not done this in the past. All sorts of allowances have been made for unusual circumstances and still they have fallen short. Possibly now they will really act. The people are patient and are still ready to believe that the cabinet means well and that it is not wholly in the grip of the profiteering interests of the country.

It took a good deal to rouse the Government to action. It was the final awakening of President Wilson that seems to have been the final factor in making them see the light. Now we shall see what we shall see.

Chautauqua Festival During the Week.

Prince Rupert is to have her first Chautauqua Festival this week, and already there has been a good deal of interest aroused. The visitors are said to be real artists in their respective lines and they will give no less than five entertainments. There will be three lectures, entertaining and instructive and also there will be plenty of music. Doubtless everyone will want to attend these entertainments for it is not often that high class entertainers come to the city.

Sir Thomas White

Canadian Minister of Finance in his Budget Speech said:—

"Our ability to meet and retire our war obligations will depend upon our power to increase our production and to economize individually so as to bring each year substantial increase in domestic wealth and savings."

"In other words the motto for the future must be 'Produce and Save.'"
