atin Mems

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port — "Prince Rupert, the Key to the Great Northwest"

VOL. XL, No. 64

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1951

PRICE FIVE CENTS

estern Canada Feels Brunt of Winter is Defiant

gary Has Worst House Passes le And Blizzard Hospital Bill

couver Still Getting High Wind-Big Fire During Storm

GARY (CP)—An 80-mile gale brought this worst blizzard on record last night. Hun- but awaits signature by the eople were unable to reach home from their from visits. Trains are stalled. Traffic is a standstill. Communication lines were changes in Canada's transport set-up, proposed by the Royal Commission on Transportation, will be partly implemented at the islation paving the way for cross-country equalization of freight rates—a major demand

Equalization of rates to level

Another key recommendation

-the long-talked-of financial

Today's Stocks

VANCOUVER

American Standard

Cariboo Quartz

Hedley Mascot

Premier Border

Silbak Premier

Pend Oreille

Sheep Creek

Taku River

Salmon Gold

Indian Mines

A P Con

Atlantic

Calmont

Home Oil

C & E .

Okalta

Princess

Athona

Beattle

Bobjo

Bevcourt

Conwest

Donalda

Eldona

Aumaque

Silver Standard

Western Uranium

Anglo Canadian

Central Leduc

Pacific Pete

Royal Canadian

Buffalo Canadian

Giant Yellowknife

Consol. Smelters

East Sullivan

God's Lake

Hardrock

Harricana

Jacknife

Lapaska

Moneta

Noranda

Louvicourt

Pickle Crow

San Antonio

Steep Rock

Silver Miller

Senator Rouyn

Sherrit Gordon

Negus

Joliet Quebec

Little Long Lac

Madsen Red Lake

McLeod Cockshutt

McKenzie Red Lake

Lynx

Hosco

TORONTO

2.40

18.00

139.25

Spud Valley

Vananda

Bralorne

Congress

Privateer

Reno

BRX

of the west.

current session of Parliament.

Irvine, pensioner of I, died of exposure Will Act people to remain in-inental trains are ours late across the had another 60gale last night. isand dollars damto two apartment the 400 block on Street during off the difference between the eastern scale and the higher western tolls was one of the chief recommendations in the 200,000-word report of the commission, submitted to parliament. tional Railways-also appeared due for Parliamentary action this

P)—An artillery duel the Korean war after Communists ted an eight-day reood their ground. sts signalled end of wal by opening up (Courtesy S. D. Johnston Co. Ltd.) est artillery barrage Hard-pressing Unitroops replied in kind. Communist defence t 20 miles south of gave up the imporub of Hongchon.

Arthur cautioned ygman Rhee of Reagainst immediate e Republican governoul. The commander ds had not yet sufsive defeat.

r made no comment ent by Rhee that he UN to authorize le source of Chinese at in men and ma their sanctuary in

Notion ected

(CP)_House of Comight voted 168 to 24 CF motion calling for -bushel payment in the five-year West-Pool. (The governses to pay 8c.) on was introduced ago by Percy Wright t) as the debate amendments to the heat Board Act.

won support from redit party, two Libhe Progressive Conan Decore (L- Veg-. Helme (L-Prince) Douglas Harkness East).

TON (CP)—House of ives armed services y a 32-to-3 vote yesoved a bill for draftt 18-and-a-half years up universal military wrote in an amendthose called up the serving in raciallyor non-segregated on the amendment

VICTORIA—The bill providing for higher hospital insurance rates passed third reading in the Legislature last night and now Lieutenant-Governor to become

Mrs. Tillie Rolston, Coalition, Vancouver-Point Grey, who exmight go even higher.

pay for it.

OTTAWA (CP) — Sweeping Spanish Floods hanges in Canada's transport Spanish Floods Strand Many ville, where the river Guadal-

ON EVERYBODY'S LIPS-

Prince Rupert is Magic Name In Vancouver City These Days Oil Fields

"Prince Rupert is on the lips of everybody everyreorganization of Canadian Na- where you go in Vancouver these days," says W. J. Scott, president of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, who returned to the city this week from Vancouver where he attended a regional conference of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. This city has won an esteem it never had before in the south. mill, everyone is talking about Prince Rupert again soon. the projected new aluminum industry at Kitimat, 80 miles south of Prince Rupert. An enormous cess of organization. that the Department of Na- Morrell, executive director, came tional Defence had thumbed out from Montreal to attend the Montreal S down on the Tugwell Island Vancouver conference at which landing field project. It is not one of the principal matters of regarded as a defence necessity, business was the proposal to set Mr. Scott believes, however, that up a chamber organization on the Chamber of Commerce the provincial level. should keep pushing for the Mr. Scott reports weather of MONTREAL (CP)-Two armed project from the standpoint of an extremely disagreeable char- bandits, their faces muffled in a commercial necessity. The in- acter while he was in Vancou- dirty handkerchiefs and multi- manager for the Power Corpor- comprised the killed. adian Pacific Air Lines, who is day there was very heavy rain. holdup this year. should be provided here. Mr. man comments.

As well as the nearby cellulose MacConachie expects to visit

W. G. Winspear of Edmonton, president of the Canadian townsite project is now in pro- Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Cunningham, chairman of the Mr. Scott heard in the south executive committee, and D. M.

Bennett Quits Coalition

Declares Gov't Should Resign VICTORIA (CP)—W. A. C. Bennett, Coalition Atherton

member of the Legislature for South Okanagan, yesterday split with the government and announced he There were further attacks by would continue as an independent.

"I no longer have any real pressed the opinion that rates confidence in this government," he said in the Legislature, "and Premier Johnson and Minister so I advise you, Madame Speakof Health and Welfare came to er, that I now disassociate mythe defence of the bill. Mr. self from the Coalition govern-Turnbull said that if people re- ment and I now stand in this Are Optioned ceived service they would have to House as an independent, representing South Okanagan.

"This government no longer well-known mining man of Vanhas the confidence of the peocouver and formerly of Hazelple," Mr. Bennett said. "This ton, returned from Topley this government should resign today. week where he had optioned Throughout the province people five good mining properties look on this government with from E. Warren Innes.

First move likely will be a leg- quivir is 30 feet above normal, with 38 supporters in the House plans indicate immediate dehave left several thousands of 48 members. There is one velopment.

Other mineral claims in the The split leaves the Coalition vicinity were also secured and

BURNS LAKE. - Al Harris,

Britain's Fifty-Year

Control Repudiated

TEHRAN. Iran (CP)_By unanimous vote, Iran's parliament de-Parliament cheered the prospect ing when death overtook him. of the government taking over the powerful Anglo-Iranian oil company which pipes millions of Premier Attlee to tons of fuel yearly to the armies, navies and air forces of United States, Britain and other western powers.

still very anxious that, for the "Vancouver people, getting 50 Eyewitnesses said the men Rupert. He was here years ago way overpass. efficacy of his company's oper- much themselves, aren't talking burst into the bank while two when his company first became Rescuers are still digging into ciale Du Canada branch.

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)-Alfred committed to stand trial Supreme Court on a charge of but with one game in hand. manslaughter arising out of the Canoe River train wreck.

Stipendiary Magistrate P. J. Morgan ruled there was sufficient evidence to warrant committal of the former Canadian National Railways telegrapher. Atherton is alleged to have transmitted train orders incorrectly, resulting in collision between two Senate Age Atherton is charged specifically in the death of Henry Prostunik, fireman on the west- IS Debated bound troop train involved in the November 21 collision.

be continued.

John Diefenbaker M.P. is defence counsel.

South Bulkley Man Found Dead

cided tentatively yesterday to livray, veteran of World War I, ate. He would agree to provinnationalize the British oil indus- was found dead in his lonely cial nominations for federal contry which would be a prize of any cabin at South Bulkley. Police sideration as a Senate appointee. war between the West and Rus- and coroner's investigations insia. Britain's 50-year control of dicated that he had died from Iranian oil fields was repudiated. natural causes. He had, evident-Spectators in the gallery of ly, been lying on his bunk read-

Enter Hospital

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Attlee will enter hospital for a medical check-up Wednesday. duodenal ulcer complaint. It is just south of Doncaster station to fall to or below freezing at He will be examined for an unknown how long he will remain in hospital but friends say there is no reason for concern.

terest of the Department of ver. There was a foot of snow colored scarves, scooped up be- ation of Canada, is a visitor in Of the 20 injured, 13 were low zero tonight. Transport should be enlisted. In there last Wednesday and the tween $10,000 and $14,000 yester- the city. He arrived on last seriously hurt. Vancouver Mr. Scott met Grant amount doubled in the next two day from an east-end bank night's train and will be here The express train jumped the MacConachie, president of Can- days. Then on Sunday and Mon- branch in the city's eleventh for the next few days. Mr. Paw- track at a switch and smashed

United States

whelmed United States 16-2 in cited for contempt as well. the world hockey championships John Atherton, 22, yesterday was last night to move into second place—one point behind Sweden Wolf, produced a doctor's certi-Americans remained in fifth

About 9,000 spectators in Palais Des Sports watched the one-

Bates Club, of Lewiston, Me.

OTTAWA—Recent speakers in The Atherton trial will likely the Senate, on the question of open May 4. Bail of $5,000 will reform included Senator J. H. King (British Columbia) and Senator J. J. Kinley (Nova Scotia). The former said he would not oppose an age limit. His own age was 78. The right of Senate appointment should be retained by federal authority although he thought a province might permitted to make nominations.

Senator Kinley argued against an age limit. He was against any BURNS LAKE. - Dan McGil- suggestion for an elected sen-

Dead in Train Wreck

LONDON (CP)—Spokesman for a British railway said 14 persons of the province and below-norwere killed today in a passenger mal temperatures will be the wreck near Doncaster. There were at least 20 injured.

coaches of the Doncaster-to- behind the active storm of yes-London express ran off the rails terday will allow temperatures shortly after leaving.

The wrecked train was made and Hull.

son is no stranger to Prince into the brick piers of a highation between Prince Rupert's rain any women customers were at two interested in Prince Rupert and one coach, believing that more and Vancouver, a landing field more," the young local business wickets of the Banque Provin- has been here on occasion since dead or injured may still be

NEW YORK (CP) - Racketeer Frank Costello risked arrest yesterday by defiantly stamping out of the Senate crime committee hearing, refusing to answer any more committee questions.

"I am going directly home to bed." said 60-year-old Costello, star witness as the Senate crime investigating committee moved through the fourth day of its sensational open hearings-television and all-in New York.

Committee Chairman Estes Kevauver (Dem.-Tenn.) warned Costello he would be arrested if PARIS (CP) - Canada over- he took the walk and would be

But Costello said he'd had enough and his lawyer, George ficate saying that Costello should stay home and "complete voice rest for several days."

Maple Leafs slaughtered the Bates Club, of Lewiston, Me.

Believed To Have Fallen in Water at Queen Charlotte

QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY (Special) - Dragging operations are continuing today for the body of Gonsagu Louis Gendron, 25, engineer of Dominion Fisheries Department patrol vessel Agonus. Gendron is believed drowned while on the way to his ship at anchor.

He was seen last on the wharf early Wednesday where it is believed he boarded a dinghy to return to his ship. The dinghy was found two hours later, empty and adrift, with one oar

Dragging began immediately and continued until dark but no trace was found of the missing

Next of kin are not known.

THE WEATHER

Cold air once again covers all rule for at least 48 hours. Cold Pacific air which moved over The spokesman said nine the coast and southern interior er polar air has moved into up at Doncaster with two Lon- northern British Columbia and don-bound trains, from York will move slowly southward in the interior. It is expected that H. E. Pawson, commercial Thirteen adults and one baby some points in the north will report temperatures near or be-

Cloudy skies and snow flurries will be quite general in the interior today with clearing taking place slowly tonight. A few snow flurries will occur along the coast. By tomorrow it is expected that there will be increasing clouds and more general snow shower activity over the north coast as a slowly developing storm in the Gulf of Alaska approaches this region. Forecast

North Coast Region - Cloudy with a few snow flurries today. Cloudy tonight and tomorrow with rain mixed with snow beginning about noon. Little change in temperature. Winds westerly (15) today, becoming morning and southeast (25) in highs tomorrow-At Port Hardy, would go down there five nights 28 and 42; Sandspit and Prince

THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE	aturuay, r	viaicii	11, 1901
High		8:36	16.2	feet
		22:35	15.1	feet
Low		2:23	12.0	feet
		15:50	7.3	feet

DANCE TONIGHT

Music by the 4 Dukes 1.0.0.F. Hall Dancing 10 - 1:30

READY FOR ACTION-St. John Ambulance Association instructor, R. E. Eyolfson, applies bandages for a crushed elbow on William Rothwell. Continuing from the left, R. J. Speers and Don Llewellyn prepare to lift Jack Franks, the stretcher case, who has been treated for a head injury. John Eyolfson, who has been dressed for a broken shoulder blade and fractured jaw, is next to the stretcher.

First Aiders to be Ready For Any Emergency Here

Two short months—eight lessons! Inside of that time, starting this evening, first aid will be taught southerly (15) by tomorrow interested men and women by the St. John Ambu- the afternoon. Lows tonight and lance Association.

daily round of life.

here for the past four years. | nursing."

after many years instructing, similar history.

to this work today by such men St. John Ambulance Brigade for as John (Jock) Davidson, su- their help in aiding the sick or perintendent of the brigade; J. rheumatic when travelling in C. Ewart of the city fire depart- strange countries. ment, or the Eyolfson brothers, Whether it's the Winnipeg R. E. Eyolfson's wife said:

WIFE'S REACTION "I told my husband I would basketball matches, the silent be glad if I never heard of the service of St. John Ambulance words first aid. Last winter he

They will teach the kind of a week. And when he wasn't do- Rupert, 30 and 40. first aid that is needed in the ing first aid, he was working on his job. And when he wasn't at Instruction will be by such his job, he was studying first men as R. E. Eyolfson, who has aid. I will be glad when we have taught both men and women the women organized for home Such names as T. J. Boulter, The symbol of help seen at all one time district commissioner public gatherings is the black of the brigade and member of and white uniform of the St. the association; Angus McDon- John Ambulance Brigade, which ald, who has an honorary life is a separate foundation of the membership in the association St. John Ambulance, but with a and J. H. Graham have made Elmore Philpott, a Daily News the history of the local group. columnist, who is visiting in the Summing up the time given Far East, recently praised the > flood, the Calgary Stampede or the Prince Rupert Civic Centre (Continued on Page 4)