Adoption Is Theme

An appealing story of modern family life is the theme of "Our Very Own" which is the feature offering which comes this Fiiday and Saturday to the screen of the Capital Theatre here. Ann Blyth, Farley Granger and Joan Evans have the stellar roles.

The striking domestic drama deals with the problem of the adopted child. The heroine, Ann Blyth, is the oldest of three girls in a happy and quiet family. She has no idea that she is adopted until she learns the fact in a startling way. Her dismayed reactions lead to emotional situations, some of which affect her "steady date" as played by Granger. The situation becomes complicated when the middle girl, Joan Evans, flirts with the boy friend.

Acclaimed as an unusually understanding and sympathetic treatment of the adoption subject, the picture has a strong supporting cast headed by Jane

Men Get Starry-eyed about the sweet, young succulence of BIRDS

EYE Frosted Peas! And your husband will be no exception . . . just serve them some night soon if you'd like to see real enthusiasm! M-mmm! . . . It's no accident that Birds Eye Peas taste the way they do. You see, the Birds Eye folks plant specially selected seed in growing areas where peas grow best. Pick them on the very morning or afternoon when they reach flavour-fullness. Then they shell, wash and double-check the peas for tenderness, and quick-freeze them before they lose a whiff of their farm-freshness! And the work, time and money they save you! . . It's a fact that 1 box d Birds Eye equals 2 pounds of peas in pods. Birds Eye are guaranteed the best peas you ever ate - or your money back.
