(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Key West, Sept. 11.—Lower Florida is paralyzed as the result of a violent hurricane. Three hundred and fifty buildings have been razed, many church edifices wrecked and five stores turned over by the wind. The property damage is estimated at two million dollars.

Shipping off the coast has met with disaster. Several vessels have been sunk and others were driven onto reefs, and the strong wind and rough sea prevented rescue. It is feared that many lives have been lost.

The tornado almost demolished the town of Goulds, a place with 500 inhabitants 25 miles south of Miami.

A FIRST CLASS ENTERTAINMENT AT CHAUTAUQUA

Tonight Will be Equally Good, Say Those Who Know Artists To Be Heard.

Seldom has a more pleasing entertainment been given in Prince Rupert than that put on last night at the Skating Rink by the Craven Concert Co. This talented family gives a really first class concert in which there is enough variety to please the most fastidious. There are no delays and there is not a dull moment. The audience in the rink last night listened with pure enjoyment and gave vent to their appreciation in no uncertain manner. The variety of instruments used, the skill with which each member carried out her particular part and the fine ensemble were subjects of remark.

With regard to the vocal contributions, the only objection was that they were too few. The negro melodies seemed to make a special appeal to the audience. Those who heard the talk by Miss Sumayah Attiyeh last night will wish to hear her lecture on Syrian life and customs on Friday afternoon. It will be one of the items not to be missed. The lady made a strong appeal to many in telling the story of her life. She is a fluent speaker, has a fund of humor about her and her talk carries with it an appeal that goes home to everyone.

Tonight the Chautauqua artists trio will give the musical part of the entertainment and Captain Wood Briggs will be the lecturer. The captain is said to be humorous and versatile and those who have heard him say he is well worth hearing. There is just one entertainment today and two tomorrow.
