A sour note interrupted what otherwise was termed a gala success Saturday night when door money of $93 "disappeared" at the Elks cabaret dance.

Staged by members to raise funds for uniforms of the new Elks basketball team, loss of the major portion of the profits was termed "disastrous."

Members said doormen had vacated their posts for a "secend" and, when they returned, the money was missing.

On her way to hospital here, Mrs. Grace Wilson of Masset gave birth to a baby boy as the steamer was passing the vicinity of Triple Island.

Captain James Hunter and ship's officers rose efficiently to the occasion.

Doctor and ambulance were on hand when the steamer docked two or three hours later and the mother and child were removed to hospital where both were reported this morning to be doing well.
