Scout Major League Baseball In Rupert

Major league baseball has been opened to youth-baseballers in Prince Rupert, and if any of the ballplayers can measure up to a standard they will be welcomed with open arms by the St. Louis Cardinals Baseball Club.

Manager of the Harlem Globe team, Abe Harlan, announced in a letter of good acquaintance to Mr. Forward, that he is interested in the St. Louis ball club.

Superstein has asked the Civic Centre director in Prince Rupert to help in watching youth-baseballers in your section which have future major league potentialities.

In his letter to Mr. Forward, several scout cards were requested for his time in this vicinity a position of major league baseballer of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mr. Forward said, "Prince Rupert is out in the cold." Superstein and Forward have remained for 20 years, and it being when directed basketball for Prince Rupert Island, and Globe made their first appearance in Western Canada.

Trouters appeared here a year ago and it's just possible that they may return this year.

Considerable discussion on whether or not to broadcast one league game a week ended in favor of a compromise at Friday night's Association meeting.
