Blackwood on Bridge
By Easley Blackwood

Mr. Meek had a respectable overcall of one heart in today's hand but he had just suffered an 1100 point set on the previous deal and he probably wouldn't have entered the bidding on a 10-card suit.

Against Mr. Champion's three no trump contract Miss Brash made her normal opening of the queen of spades. Mr. Champion grinned as the dummy went down, and he saw that he had plenty of time to set up dummy's club suit.

He won on the board with the ace of spades and immediately led the king of clubs. Mr. Meek could see no reason to lay off and he won with the ace and banged down the king of hearts. But it was too late.

Mr. Champion toyed with the hand. He ducked the heart lead and strangely enough this play gave him one more trick than he could have made by going up with the ace.

Mr. Meek continued with the queen of hearts. This time Mr. Champion took the ace and played out the rest of dummy's clubs. From his own hand he threw the five of hearts and the rest of diamonds.

Miss Brash had to make three discards on the clubs. She dropped the trey of spades and her last heart without damage. But then she was down to the jack

Francois Lake
J. Schuetz is visiting with his sister, Mrs. Carl Klassen, and family. He lives at Eston, Saskatchewan.

The Francois Lake store has been freshly painted and has new concrete foundations.

The Loveseth family and friends have been saddened by the death of Mrs. Karen Loveseth. Although she has been ill for some time and advanced in age, her loss will be keenly felt.

Fought in Exhibition
Prince Rupert Boxing Club members who visited Ketchikan July 3 and 4, were disappointed to find they were not fighting on a card but were used for exhibition boxing.

Andy Marshall, Billy "Mouse" Morrison and "Chubby" Stacey left for Ketchikan Monday night with the All-Star baseball team expecting a fight waiting for them.

Trainer Joe Ward said "the only reason the boys went in the first place "was to gain a little more experience." Prince Rupert boxers sparred with U.S. Coast Guard boxers.

Riding Club Has Enjoyable Day
FRANCOIS LAKE—The Francois Lake Riding Club met at the Landing on Sunday morning with six members riding — Mrs. Clarence Snyder on "Chief," Mrs. Kay Chappelle on "Scout," Mrs. Van Zanten on "May," Keith Reed on "Silver," Harold Neave on "Pet" and Mrs. Harold Neave on "Major." It was a glorious day and the club took the lake-shore road east as far as the perline mine workings. This took the riders high up over the lake and the view was lovely from there. Although it was a hot day the trail was mostly in the shadow of the trees. The horses were tied near the old Sattler ranch-house and the party ate lunch under the trees.

There was a little excitement when some wandering cattle
