Mrs. J. M. Golby, wife of Lt. Cdr. Golby of HMCS Chatham, and family sailed last night on the Coquitlam for Vancouver. They will proceed later to Halifax where Lt. Cdr. Golby is being transferred in the naval service.

PRAMCAR—The combination sidecar-perambulator pictured here aroused considerable interest when it was shown for the first time at the British Industries Fair in London and at Castle Bromwich, near Birmingham. The "Pramcar," as the vehicle is called, can be attached and converted from perambulator to sidecar in a few seconds. The "Pramcar" is fitted with hood and windscreen, offering baby complete protection, and the makers claim that the combination is less prone to skidding than a solo bicycle.

Dale L. Pitt, managing director of Silbak-Premier mine, was a passenger aboard the Camosun last evening returning to Premier from a brief business trip to Vancouver.

● We now have this year's High School pins in stock and would be glad if students will call for theirs. Bulger's Jewellers. (1tc)

C. O. Snell, production manager for the J. H. Todd & Sons salmon canning concern, came north from Vancouver to Klemtu cannery at the end of the week.

J. A. M. Patterson of Toronto, president of the Mining Corporation of Canada, who has been at Alice Arm for the past week visiting the Torbit mine, will be here aboard the Camosun tomorrow going through to Vancouver enroute back East.

● REWARD—A reward of $100 to any person giving information which will lead to the discovery of the boat which rammed the seiner "Arita" on Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning. Phone Sunnyside Cannery. (142p)

A. M. Hickey of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, who has been holidaying in the south, was a passenger aboard the Camosun last evening going through to Stewart where he will relieve the manager of the branch there, M. S. Genge, who is going south on vacation.
