

CITY BASEBALL—

Gordon and Anderson In Second Straight Win

Cellar Dwellers Looking Up—Beat
League Leaders

They did it again. The baseball team which most fans had relegated to the cellar for the season blew into a new position again last night as Gordon & Anderson took their second 3-2 win from Commercial in as many games.

And they did it with only four hits. It wasn't a pitcher's game at all for the winning pitcher, Larry Matthews, allowed 10 hits. It was a real spectators' game with plenty of fielding action.

Don Hawryluk, losing pitcher for Commercial, worked through all seven innings of the night game. Matthews was relieved for the last man at bat in the fifth, pitched the sixth, and shifted position again in the seventh with Don Scherk at third base.

Try as they would, Hotelmen couldn't get their runners to count. Three runners were put out at home plate, one, pitcher Hawryluk, by a spectacular throw from left fielder Andy Marshall, who winged into Catcher Caralie's mitt in time by a step.

Commercial left seven men aboard, Gordon & Anderson left on five, two on hits, two on walks, and one on the only error of Commercial, by catcher Benny Windle—a bad throw to first base.

With Gordon & Anderson the visiting team, Sunberg led off with a double and was batted in by Marshall.

For Commercial, in the bottom of the first, Bruce Simundson gained first on Sunberg's error and was brought home by the game's second double, hit by Miner Simundson.

In the top of the second, Hartwig, shortstop, got on by four balls. Dunbar singled and Matthews got on by a bad throw to first by Catcher Windle on the last strike.

With bases loaded, Sunberg drove in a long looping fly into left field. Linney got under it and made the out, but Sunberg still got his RBI as Hartwig scored on the throw.

Strongest hitter for his team, Manager Cornwell was next to bat, with two on bases. A hurried consultation on the mound showed Hotelmen would walk the centerfielder, Caralie, who has been hitting weak all season, grounded out to retire the side.

Third score for G & A came in the fifth on a single by Cornwell, only hit of the inning. He stole second on Caralie's first strike, and gained third on a pitch in the dirt. Caralie grounded out to the pitcher but Marshall, with a long fly to centre, chalked up another RBI as Cornwell scored on the throw from Miner Simundson, who caught Marshall's fly.

Fastest action in the game came in the base running by Hotelmen, especially in the play which ran down Bruce Simundson between third and second and Scherk at third, Bruce finally was run down.

In that same inning, however, Commercial got in their second run, brought home by Zaccarelli and batted in by McDonald. McDonald was out at the plate when he tried for home on B.

Simundson's single.

Commercial had only one hit-base. Bruce expected to throw to first on Miner Simundson's grounder, and started for third. Cornwell, from centrefield, seeing the play, dashed in to cover second and called for the ball.

In an exciting race with the ball between Hartwig and Cornwell less than 100 feet from the fifth, but they had three men on bases, two on balls and one on a hit batter when Matthews threw a slow ball to catch Windle on the hip. That spoiled a good play, too, for Miner Simundson had called for the perfect set-up.

Brother Bruce was walked to first, Miner's sacrifice advanced him to second. Gunn grounded out, and clean-up hitter Windle was to bring in Bruce, who had gained third on a steal.

Desaulnier, following Windle, also was walked, and Hawryluk, at bat in the clutch with a man on third, struck out to end the inning.

HOUSING SLUMP

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (U)—Only one new house-building permit was taken out here during July. Contractors said prospective householders were having difficulty raising the increased down payments required by federal credit regulations.

WOODSTOCK, N.B. (CP) Barbers and service-station operators protested so vigorously when town council repealed an early-closing by-law affecting their establishments that council reimposed the by-law the following week.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my Dad, Alfred Sankey, who died July 24, 1944.
Nothing can ever take away the love a heart holds dear. Fond memories linger every day.
Remembrance keeps him near. So peaceful be thy rest, dear Dad.
It is sweet to breathe thy name; In life I loved you dearly—in death I do the same.
Always loved and always will be remembered by daughter, Phoebe. (11p)
