Helldivers in Second Victory

In a fast game this morning, Pee-Wee League Helldivers took their second straight win, coming up from behind to defeat Borden Street cagers 17-15. The Civic Centre sponsored pee-wees practically repeated their performance of their first game when they edged out King Edward while trailing them in the third quarter.

Today, Borden Street was going strong in the third leading the Helldivers 15-13. Two points each by Bows and Kelsey in the fourth gained the lead which

Monarchs Disbanded

VANCOUVER (CP) — Kerrisdale Monarchs, of the Pacific senior amateur two-team league, has been disbanded.

Owner Sid Hole made the announcement following the Monarchs' 6-5 victory over Trail Smoke Eaters last night. He said he had lost more than $4000 so far and that the minimum loss for the full season would be between $12,000 and $15,000.

High rink rental was given as the main trouble.

decided the game. Such a narrow margin is evidence that this year's league is closely matched. Arrow last Thursday took a two-point beating from Borden Street, while King Ed lost by two points to Helldivers in the first pee-wee hoop bill.

Helldivers—Forward, Bows 6, Kilborn, Lugrin, Kelsey 7, B. McLeod, D. McLeod 4.
Borden Street—S. Wong 5, J. McLeod 2, F. Warner, B. Dixon 4, J. Scott, A. Nickerson, W. Anderson, D. Vaccher, K. Mah, R. Eby, I. Rensvold 4.

MUSICAL STIMULUS
COPENHAGEN (Reuters) — Farmer Knud Eiersen of Falster last year started piping music into his cowsheds. Now he claims his cows are the best in Denmark, their average output being 585 pounds of butter per year compared with the national average of 320 pounds.

Remember when?

William D. Cox, president of the Philadelphia Phillies of the National Baseball League, was barred from baseball for life by Commissioner Landis eight years ago yesterday. Cox for accused of betting on games in which the Phillies played. He was succeeded as head of the Phillies by Bob Carpenter.

Frank (King) Clancy, one of hockey's all-time greats, retired as a player 15 years ago. He turned professional with Ottawa Senators in 1922 at the age of 18 and went to Toronto Maple Leafs in 1930 in exchange for $35,000 and two Toronto players. Former chief referee of the NHL, he now coaches Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League.
