Bobby Thompson Disclaims Win

NEW YORK.—Seven weeks after his historic home run, Bobby Thompson said today that he "certainly wouldn't want to take any credit for winning the National League pennant."

The tall, shy New York Giant third-baseman, whose three-run ninth inning home run beat the Brooklyn Dodgers in the third game of the post-season playoff, said: "It's hard to make people realize that one thing doesn't win a pennant."

Richard Spurs Canadiens To Third Place Victory

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Canadiens snapped out of their slump with a vengeance Thursday night and trimmed Toronto Maple Leafs 5-1 as Maurice (Rocket) Richard paced the winners with two goals.

The night's other National Hockey League fixture ended in a 1-1 saw-off between Detroit Red Wings and Boston Bruins—the 15th tie in 82 league games this season.

A jubilant Montreal crowd of 14,542 saw the Habitanis trounce their Canadian rivals and take sole possession of third place in the league.

Dick Gamble, Elmer Lach and Paul Meger scored the Canadiens' other goals and Sid Smith got the Toronto lone tally.

Richard's goals sent his season's total to 15 and his NHL
