Sport Briefs

Already many ludicrous tales are being told of mighty hunters who went out to the woods over the week end. Two of the local business men went out and took a friend along who is a new arrival here. They were going to get all kinds of deer and pursued to show the green horn just wherein they excelled in woodcraft. To start off with one of them did not try out his cartridges until he got into the wood and then he found that they were the wrong calibre. The other hunted well and afar but had no luck. The southern friend covered the same ground as the local sportsman and on one occasion saw one another in the wood. He got a deer, however, and the big game men who had promised such great things felt rather crestfallen on returning to town.

Word has been received from the Dominion Football Association in regard to the protest sent in by the Trail Athletics when time was blown at one of the games with the Callies, when they still had a penalty to kick. The association stated that the game was unfinished. The date for the replay will be arranged at some future time.

Malcolm Lamb, formerly registered player for the St. Andrew's Society, appeared on the football field in a red and white stripe. He played a very good game and checked well throughout. He scored a fine goal when he raised the ball over the heads of his own forwards and got it just under the bar.

The Trail Athletics in Monday's game fielded an excellent man in the outside left which they played. He is a stranger to town but made an excellent showing and displayed very capable foot work.

It was very amusing to the crowd at the football game on Monday evening when the two brothers Albert and Ed Craggs clashed. They were on opposite sides and generally both went down when they came together. There did not seem to be much time for brotherly love when the game was going on.

After a lapse of five years the strong Oxford and Cambridge golfing societies have resumed their activities and have arranged an attractive list of fixtures for the coming autumn.

The Royal Southern Yacht Club recently had a revival in its annual regatta at Calshot and was favored by ideal weather. The chief event was a handicap for yachts over 20 but not exceeding 50 tons, and this was won by J. W. Cook's Thane. Mr. G. P. McKencie's Stella got second prize. The usual holiday regatta on the upper reaches of the Thames are taking place, the meeting at Hampton Court and Ditton which is one of the oldest in the history of rowing, attracting a large crowd of visitors and a goodly number of both men and women skulkers in the various events.

The Prince Rupert baseball team had a practise last evening on the Acropolis Hill grounds. They are getting into shape for the matches to be played here during the next few days. The boys made a very good showing and intend giving the bunch from the smelter town a good run for their money.

Andrew Carnegie

One of the world's richest men was the son of a poor Scotch weaver. He early learned the advantages of economy. At the age of 10 he saved a few shillings—enough to buy a box of oranges—which he quickly peddled at a profit of 100 per cent.

While yet a young man, he managed through thrift to accumulate $500, which he invested. His first dividend inspired the remarkable achievements of later years.

But the seed of his prosperity was sown when he began his first savings.

We invite your savings account.
