SETTLEMENT BOARDS

Editor News.—It is questionable whether the government considered the question of settling returned soldiers on land in close proximity to the fishing grounds of the north. There are many spots of ten or twenty acres adjacent to Prince Rupert on which families might live the year round, while the men could engage in trolling during the summer and preparing gardens during the fall and winter. The raising of strawberries, poultry, vegetables and fruit would give employment and a lucrative means of living could be found.

The Indian fishermen raise potatoes, turnips and other vegetables by planting in the spring before the salmon season begins. They then engage in trolling and gather their vegetables in the fall. These people own their houses; almost all of them have gasoline launches, and they are becoming fairly well off. With fishing settlements on the adjacent islands where each resident would cultivate a few acres of land, there are better prospects than in clearing farms out of the wilderness of trees and stumps.

Some fishermen made five hundred dollars in a few weeks fishing on the rivers and along the coast. The climate is not against clearing and gardening all the year round. To prevent isolation families could form settlements of fishermen and make a good comfortable living away from the turmoil of the city. They would also garner food from a more prolific source than from the land with no trouble in planting. The price of fish this year shows that that industry is profitable for those engaged in the neighborhood of Prince Rupert.

SERBIAN LADY REPLIES

Editor The News: Please allow me a space in the Daily News for this article. I wish to express my opinion of the party, whoever it was, that criticized the Serbian orchestra. Their praise was very enthusiastic about the music and it would also be of the singing if they could have understood. And it is there that I and many others do not think the criticism was just.

It must be remembered there were many Serbian people attending the Chautauqua and it was only proper that there should be some singing in Serbian, and they also tried to please the whole public by singing some American airs and some people had enough nerve to criticize.

It also must be remembered that a thing cannot be appreciated properly unless it is fully understood. You may be sure that your songs, if American, are just as interesting to a foreigner who could not understand them as our songs are to you. I think it is a folly for anyone to criticize anything of which they know practically nothing.

LANDS WANTED FOR SOLDIER SETTLERS.

Powers have been granted to the Soldier Settlement Board of Canada to purchase agricultural land to be resold to qualified returned soldiers settling on land. To assist soldiers in locating in any suitable district of British Columbia that they wish, the Soldier Settlement Board desires to have filed with them full description and lowest cash prices on a number of select quarter sections available for purchase in each district of the province. Purchases by the Board will be paid for in cash.

The public are informed that this land is for purchase by returned soldiers, and must be of good agricultural quality, and reasonable price, making possible the success of the soldier as a farmer. It should be within seven miles of a railway, open, free from weeds, water supply assured, and of the best possible particular, mention nearest market and school. In comparison with the vast supply of vacant lands, the number of farms immediately required will be very limited. Owners, therefore, will kindly assist the Board by offering for the present only land which fills the above requirements. No commission will be charged or paid. No offers to sell will be binding on the person offering, unless a sale is effected, and no obligation will be on the Board to accept any offer.

An application from a returned soldier be received for the purchase of land, an inspection and valuation of such land may be made by the Board. If approved negotiations may be entered into for the purchase and sale thereof. An approval list is desired for each district in British Columbia. For lands on mainland of British Columbia, address, Superintendent, Soldier Settlement Board, Rogers Building, Vancouver, and for lands on Vancouver Island, address, Soldier Settlement Board, Pemberton Building, Victoria, B. C. SOLDIER SETTLEMENT BOARD, CANADA.
