Robert Dixon, 73, believed suffering from pneumonia, dropped dead outside the residence of Pat Heagney at 334 Eighth Ave. East. Mr. Dixon was a well known fish vendor.

25 YEARS AGO

March 13, 1926

BC's BIGGEST BUDGET

The Highlights—

The highlights of the minister's budget speech are as follows:

1. Minister explained need for changing from peace-time economy to what was tantamount to wartime economy since all production needs are now geared to requirements of national defence.

2. Provincial assets as at March 31, 1950 amounted to $42,854,624; liabilities amounted to $347,701,535; assets exceeded liabilities by $95,153,088.

3. Provincial debt as at December 31, 1950 was $171,211,990, an increase of $25,111,625 since December 31, 1949.

4. Analysis of debt situation shows that net debt per capita on December 31, 1950 was $150.45 or $40 less per capita than in 1933.

5. While the gross debt today is much larger than it was in 1933, carrying charges are much less. In 1933, $7,900,000 was required to pay interest as against $7,150,000 in 1950.

6. Minister warned against incurring of debts for non-revenue producing projects unless more was spent in developing the provincial natural resources to create revenue to meet debt costs.

7. Sinking fund as at December 31, 1950 amounted to $36,260,000 or $6,190,000 greater than in previous year.

8. Expenditures for the current year ending March 31 will total $117,000,000.

9. Expenditures for 1951-52 estimated at $12,269,000 and revenue at $118,503,000.

SAVING IN POLICE

10. Substantial saving anticipated from policing of province during next fiscal year with costs estimated at $559,000 compared with $1,870,000 for the current year.

11. Among major increase in 1951-52 budget are the following items: $455,000 more for basic grants to school boards; $782,000 more for special aid to rural schools; $150,000 more for the University of British Columbia; $1,000,000 more for municipalities out of motor vehicle and social security tax sources; $923,000 more for social allowances; $1,000 more for mothers' allowances; $395,000 more for cost-of-living bonus to old age pensioners; $361,000 for basic old age pensions; $995,000 for forest services; $405,000 more for aid of mining roads, trails and grubstaking of prospectors; $617,000 more in the provincial secretary's department to cover increased institutional costs, home for the aged and civilian defence and $500,000 more for maintenance of highways, bridges and ferries.

12. Mr. Ansonb pointed out that, including debt charges, there would be spent on public works this year $21,100,000 or a sum of $340,000 greater than received by way of revenue from the motor vehicle licences and fees, gasoline taxes and motor carrier fees.

13. By March 31, 1951 the operating deficit of the hospital insurance fund will amount to $12,750,000.

14. Hospital Insurance Commission by March 31, 1951 will have spent $42,460,000 in the operation of its scheme.

15. In dealing with municipal assistance Mr. Ansonb pointed out that municipal financial assistance had risen from $2,960,000 in 1941-42 to an estimated $27,385,000 in the coming fiscal year.

16. Borrowing powers for provincial purposes amounting to $23,000,000 will be sought from the legislature and in addition to this $15,000,000 will be required for the B.C. Power Commission. The actual capital expenditures authorized in part by the above borrowing powers are estimates to include: highway development and equipment—$13,700,000; provincial buildings, $10,000,000; grants toward hospital construction (gross) $3,000,000; Quessell central power development $1,000,000; Okanagan flood control $950,000; grants toward school construction $5,000,000; P.G.E. construction $4,500,000.

17. Authority would be asked to appropriate revenue surpluses to the extent of $3,100,000 as follows: $1,500,000 towards the hospital insurance deficit; $600,000 for harg-surfacng or roads; $1,000,000 for the sinking funds for debt redemption.

18. Mr. Ansonb, in dealing with federal-provincial fiscal relations, pointed out that British Columbia had contributed relatively far greater sums to the federal treasury than the other provinces and that it would appear therefore that British Columbia was not receiving an amount that would compensate it for the exploitation of its natural resources.

19. Mr. Ansonb stated he realized it was difficult to secure full remedial measures in times such as these but hoped the federal government would recognize British Columbia's claim, at least in part, and that full remedial measures would be taken for the future if the agreements were to continue.

TOO MUCH SOCIAL AID

In conclusion, the minister stated, after producing a chart showing the volume of money spent by the province in support of various programs now in force, that "I have no alternative but to warn the legislature and the people generally that, in my opinion, far too great an emphasis is being placed upon social assistance, welfare and education, and far too little attention is being paid to the productive services, such as development of agriculture, mining, the conservation and stabilization of our forest and fishing industries, and, finally, to provide those means of communication that promote industrial expansion, such as highways, bridges, ferries, etc." In analyzing these expenditures, the years 1929-30, 1939-40, 1946-47 were used for a comparison with the estimates for the coming year.

It was shown that the costs of health and welfare had risen from $4,100,000 in 1929-30 to $36,600,000 for the coming year; that education costs had risen from $4,250,000 to $17,400,000; that debt charges had risen from $7,500,000 to $17,240,000 as against expenditures on public domain of $5,240,000 in 1929 and $24,000,000 odd for the coming year. Mr. Ansonb contended most strongly that far too little was being done to promote industrial expansion to insure that the great humanitarian services could be maintained and protected in the future.

Red Paper Under Fire

Scene Outside Hockey Forum in Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — Police Saturday night arrested nine persons who, they said, were selling a "Communist" newspaper called "Champion."

Although the paper carried a front page story about Maurice (Rocket) Richard, the Montreal Canadiens' hockey star, the anti-subversive squad said Richard had nothing to do with the paper and the front page picture of the Montreal hockey idol was used only to bait the public into buying the paper.

Some 500 copies were seized.
