INTERNATIONAL BASKETBALL

Prince Rupert Jets Are Series Winners

Prince Rupert (B.C.) Jets are the proud possessors of the handsome new Fishermen's Co-operative trophy for international competition as a result of their 66 to 54 win over Metlakatla (Alaska) on Saturday night. It was the most exciting game of the series but Jets were never behind as they piled up a quick 19 to 5 lead and played brilliant basketball all the way to win the International Tournament with a clean sweep of three victories.

Metlakatla fought gamely to overcome the Jets' early lead and at one time came to within 9 points of doing so as they closed up the score to 48 to 57 in the second half. About this time the Jets lost Art Olson on five personals and it looked as though Metlakatla might come through as Olson had held Jeff David down all through the game and had played an outstanding game while doing it. However, the Jets took a time-out and came back more confident than ever as they ran up their lead again to 16 points, with Metlakatla also playing heads-up ball all the way to score the final two baskets.

George Viereck presented the trophy to Coach Alex Bill who in turn handed it over to his team members. A capacity crowd witnessed the contest which produced as fine basketball as has been seen here in years. Every game of the series was a thriller. The teams were all well matched and, although Rupert's second entry was not expected to give much opposition because of the hurriedness of its organization, it made every game a hard-fought contest.

Mr. Viereck, in presenting the trophy, expressed the wish that this first tournament would be the first of many in the coming years. He congratulated the winners on their excellent play and spoke of the clean sportsmanship demonstrated by all players.

Metlakatla players rushed to the Jets' bench when the final whistle sounded to congratulate their victors, this being a typical demonstration of the excellent feelings which were in evidence throughout the tournament.

Don Seherk was again high man for the Jets as he scored 20 points. He was well supported by Jim Flaten with 14 and Art Olson who scored 13. Herb Morgan saw service briefly and gave good account of himself. Reg Lavigne, Joe Davis and Ray Spring broke up many Metlakatla plays with their vigorous offensive and the long-passing plays of the Jets were largely responsible for their superior showing.

For the losers, Jeff David was again sensational. In spite of the fact that he was well checked by Art Olson and Rupert Holkestad, he was still able to get in 20 points, although 6 of these were on foul shots. J. Booth and Atkinson each contributed 8. Booth left the floor on personals late in the second half, after a scintillating performance throughout the game.

Referees Comadina and Slatta had a tough evening as they called this typical cup-time contest. There were 20 personals on the Jets and 12 on the losers. The Jets converted 12 of 16 free throws and Metlakatla made 14 of 25.

RUPERT II VS. KETCHIKAN
Ketchikan won over Rupert II by 61 to 41, with the Rupert team holding them to a 26 to 23 lead in the first half. Ketchikan needed a lead of at least 42 points to stay in the tournament running in the event that Metlakatla won over the Jets, but the Rupert II team wasn't giving away any free points, and Ketchikan had to learn their win the tough way.

Christopher, with 12, and Christensen, with 11, were top scorers for the winners and Mel Thompson played a bang-up

basket buzzes

Those who didn't see Saturday night's final game between Prince Rupert Jets and the Metlakatla Vets missed an exciting experience in competition which was shared by every spectator. As the final score was rated—on a ratio of about 60-40 for the Jets—so also were divided the two thousand people who cheered, rooted and booed at every opportunity.

At times the timbers shook—they brought the house down. It was clearly obvious from the start that the Vets, running an even chance with the Jets to win the series, would have a deadly fight on their hands. They did. From the first they were outplayed, outcheeked and outscored.

The tenacious Prince Rupert team wanted the trophy badly. They played a clean, hard game to get it. Ketchikan was still in the running early in the evening when they stood off Prince Rupert's second entry, but they were hard pressed throughout the game.

Rupert II threw everything they had at the Rockets. They couldn't win, of course, but they kept their score high enough to put the Alaska team out of the running. But Ketchikan had more than a team on the floor against them. They had the crowd against them too. It is hard to win without support from game as he scored 12 for Rupert. It was a rugged contest with Referees Slatta and Davidson calling 16 fouls on Rupert and 11 on Ketchikan. Rupert was woefully weak in their foul shooting, getting only 3 for 15 possibles. Ketchikan made 15 of 23.

PRELIMINARY
High School Green continued their winning streak in the Intermediate League to dispose of Merchants by an easy 39 to 25 score. The Merchants were outplayed in every quarter but the third as they just couldn't get rolling. Clark and Peneff led the Greens to victory with their 12 and 11 scores. The Greens lost Rhodes on 5 personals. The game was refereed by R. H. Davidson and Boyo Gurvich who called 11 on the losers and 12 on the winners.

LEAGUE GAMES
Tomorrow night the regular league games get under way again with High School playing an exhibition with Brownwoods as a preliminary to the senior contest between Co-op and Gordon and Anderson. Rupert Hotel plays Manson's in the Junior game and this will be followed by an Intermediate game, between Merchants and Fashion.

the bleachers. When the trophy was presented, the Jets' coach, Alex Bill, turned to his team. "This isn't for me," he said. He handed the victory emblem to his men. "You take it, boys. You sure deserve it."

To win the series Prince Rupert Jets remained unbeaten to pile up a total of 165 points. Other teams scored as follows:
New Metlakatla Vets 144
Ketchikan Rockets 147
Rupert II 105

Prince Rupert Jets 3 0
Ketchikan 2 1

Rupert II 0 3

Before each game was played, the trophy was placed on a table in the centre of the floor. Everyone saw it and admired it, many commenting that they had never seen a finer one.

Fishermen's Co-Operative Association has it designed and made in Toronto. The trophy stands two feet high, four gold-finished pillars supported on a heavy eight-inch square pedestal. Between the pillars stands a life-like figure in the act of shooting a basketball, and mounted on a gold dome on top is the victory figure surrounded by four gold laurel wreaths.

Next year this prize again will be placed in the office, as a reward for clean sportsmanship and successful competition.
