Syl Apps, when Toronto Maple Leafs great centre star, declared 11 years ago that he would stand for election in the Dominion general election. But as Conservative candidate he was defeated in his home riding of Brant in the federal election of March 1940, and five years later was defeated in the Ontario election. In 1947 he was appointed Ontario Athletic Commissioner and retired from hockey in 1948.

Billy Burch, former Toronto Aura Lee amateur centre, made his professional hockey debut with Hamilton in the National Hockey League 23 years ago at Montreal. Burch, who later retired, figured in two of his team's four goals against Canadiens.

URGE IMMUNIZATION
MONTREAL—Dr. Adela Groulx, Montreal health director warned that "far too many" Montreal babies are not yet immunized against diphtheria and whooping cough. He said every baby at six months should be immunized.

SMITHERS.—Because of the energy and enthusiasm of 15 boys, aged 10 to 12 years, the Smithers Pee Wee hockey team will be wearing brand new uniforms shortly. More than $116 was realized through a home-cooking sale and cake raffle organized by the boys.

Although help in pricing and arrangement of items was given by several mothers, the boys did all the groundwork, said Mrs. Joseph MacDonald.

"I guess they are really anxious to show off their uniforms as well as their playing skill to the neighboring teams," she laughed.

Other ladies who aided in the sale were Mrs. Russell McFarland, Mrs. William Bovill and Mrs. I. A. Arnold.

Although the Smithers youngsters have suffered recent losses, they are confident of winning the finals when they meet Telkwa and Fort St. James early this month.
