Flying Eilers Forced Down But Arrive Today

Grounded at Ocean Falls Overnight

Bucking ice, snow and windstorms in their modest eight-place Fairchild, seven players of Vancouver Eilers basketball team were due to arrive in Prince Rupert this afternoon.

Skiers Head For the Hills

With nearly five feet of snow on the ski slopes of Mt. Hays a big crowd of skiers are expected to make for the hills this weekend. And interest will be centred on the new run, cleared by club members last fall.

President George Mostad and the Eldsvik brothers, Harold and Odd, gave the new run a try last week-end but the snow was not quite deep enough then, they report. More than a foot, however, has fallen since.

Prince Rupert Ski Club recently received its membership certification in the Canadian Amateur Ski Association, western division, and are in receipt of regular issues of literature available to all members.

The Ski Magazine also is being received regularly and is available at Mr. Mostad's cabin.
