Can Prince Rupert Beat Anyox in Speed?

A good many people are discussing the possibility of Prince Rupert beating Anyox at speed boat racing. For several years the Anyox boat has come here and carried off the honors. This year a better effort than usual was made to hold the trophy here but everything was left to the last minute with the result that the visitors walked away with the coveted silver just as usual.

Two of the local contestants, George Frizzell and J. Myhill-Jones, declare that they are going to build something that will beat the Wayward Girl. As that boat made over 28 miles an hour over part of the course it will be necessary to make a speed of at least thirty miles to beat her. There is also the possibility, and a quite likely one, that the Anyox people will have something better next year.

Both Mr. Frizzell and Mr. Myhill-Jones are men who, when they say they will do anything, are likely to do it. They say they are going after that trophy and nothing would please us so much as to see it come here. Anyox people have been good sports in sending a boat here year after year and it is not exactly to our credit that we have let them get away with the honors each season. Possibly the real race next year will be between two local boats and that the Wayward Girl will be the slow one of the trio.

New Fish Firm Gets Ready for Business.

The Pacific Sea Products has taken a lease on some waterfront property with an option to purchase. They have recognized the strategic position of Prince Rupert as a buying centre and are spending some money here and getting ready to compete with the other firms.

The more buyers we have here, the better it is for the port. Fishermen like to go where there is plenty of competition and that is what they will get at Prince Rupert. It is to be hoped that they will prove a real factor in the business life of this community.

Labor Prepares for Political Action.

In Great Britain it looks as if the Labor men were preparing for a big political struggle. They are lining up their forces and refusing to compromise with the present government. It will be an interesting fight. Lloyd George has not often been beaten, but if he stays in long enough he is bound to meet his Waterloo. Tom Smillie is already spoken of as the next premier of Great Britain. The situation is not only interesting but critical. It will be watched from this side of the Atlantic, as Canada often takes her cue from the Old Country.
