Allies Still On Move
TOKYO—Allied forces, continuing their steady northward advance in Korea in the face of stiffening Communist resistance, are closing in on the important supply base of Hoengson, 15 miles north of Hoengson, which they captured yesterday.
A United States tank and infantry force advanced 3½ miles today.
Terrain is extremely rough and weather bitterly cold but, nevertheless, progress is made.

OTTAWA FROWNS ON DOUK MOVE

Chinese Reds Rebellious

HONG KONG (CP)—Red terror in Swatow — Crushed guerrilla movement in Kwangsi—Seething peasant unrest in south—these were the reports out of Communist China today. They all added up to what the Red capital at Peiping itself admitted only last week—that dissidents were challenging their Communist masters all over China.
Newspaper reports said today the tommy-gun rules in the port of Swatow, opposite Formosa, and that jails are jammed with suspected adherents to Chiang Kai-Shek. Many Chinese were reported fleeing the Red terror.

The Doukhobor Problem

Reactions to Settling Sons of Freedom on Queen Charlottes

A variety of opinion and reaction met a Daily News reporter today in answer to the question: "What do you think of the radical sect of Doukhobors planning to settle Graham Island?"

(The Daily News carried a Canadian Press report yesterday that 2,500 Sons of Freedom might make their future home on the Queen Charlotte Islands.)
Mayor Rudderham—"It's hard to say" Mayor G. W. Rudderham thought. "If the Doukhobors were relocating of their own free will, it could be beneficial both to the country and to the people."
"But if the governments plan to settle them there, just to get rid of a nuisance, I'm not for it." The mayor thought the "strange sect" could "well enough live off the land." The people were reportedly good farmers and, once away from their enemy faction, the orthodox, peaceful-living Doukhobors, the radicals might become peaceful.

"In that light I think it may be a good idea. But they still must obey the laws of the land," Mayor Rudderham added.
W. J. Scott—"I think it would be better to get them out of the country entirely," said W. J. Scott, president of Associated Boards of Trade, "unless we can have some definite understanding and assurance from the governments that they (Doukhobors) will abide by the law."

Geoff Hills—"In view of their past disloyalty I don't think they should let all of the 2,500 at once in one place," was the opinion of Geoffrey Hills, president Junior Chamber of Commerce. "If they ever start anything, they would be too much to handle for the few police in the area."

Mr. Hills thought it would be better to allow only a few hundred migrate to remote sections of the province, such as Peace River valley, Bulkley valley and the Queen Charlottes.
Henry Peterson—Henry Peterson, 1601 Eighth Avenue East had another opinion.
"I don't think it would effect Prince Rupert, except perhaps in the tourist line. Tourists would steer clear of the Island, he thought."

"But I guess those people must have some place to go," Mrs. Blackaby—Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby, president of Women's Canadian Club here, and formerly a trouble shooter for the Saskatchewan education department.

First Casualty List is Issued

OTTAWA — The first official casualty list of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, in the Korean fighting has been issued.
Five are listed as dead, one dead of wounds, ten wounded and four injured.

No West Coast men are shown in the killed in action list but one, Lieut. Alfred S. Wagstaff of Vancouver, was wounded and two others—Pte. Patrick Beley and Pte. Archibald Cunio, both of Vancouver—are battle accident victims.

France Still Sans Premier

PARIS—George Bidault, having failed in his effort, another former Prime Minister, Henri Queuille, endeavored to form a new government for France—but he, too, failed in the attempt to muster enough support to assume the Premiership.

After Queuille, who is a Radical Socialist, abandoned his attempts to form a new French cabinet, Guy Mollet, 46-year-old Socialist school teacher, said he would try.
Mollet was thus the third French political leader to accept an invitation from President Vincent Auriol to try a hand at forming a cabinet.

Deadlock over reforms in electoral law brought about the downfall of Premier Rene Pleven's government Wednesday.
Mollet was minister of state and representative of Pleven's cabinet in Big Four council of Europe affairs.

Queen Charlottes Not Suitable For Security Reasons, Military Says

VANCOUVER (CP)—High military officials in Ottawa were reported today to have frowned on proposals to relocate the radical Doukhobors in Queen Charlotte Islands.

Famine In Korea

GENEVA (CP) — There will be famine in South Korea next year unless about 3,000,000 refugees, jammed into the lower part of the peninsula, can be put back on their farms by May, Donald Kingsley, United Nations agent-general for Korean reconstruction, said today.

Challenge To Soviet

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—United States today dared Russia to let United Nations start counting her soldiers, sailors, guns, tanks and planes Monday.

The United States agreed to undergo the same inspection. Such an independent census, the U.S. said, would show once and for all who had the biggest armed forces—Soviet Union or the western powers.
Russia rejected all previous demands for such a count.

The new American move was occasioned by Russia's note to Britain last week charging the western powers had twice as many men under arms as the Soviet Union.
