WHO WILL LEAD CONSERVATIVES

W. J. Bowser Expected to be the Choice of Convention Owing to Lack of Anyone Else.

MAJOR DICK BURDE AMONG POSSIBLES

Victoria, Sept. 24.—Preparations are being made by local Conservatives to take part in the Conservative convention next week at Vancouver, the one outstanding object of which will be the choosing of a leader.

"Will W. J. Bowser be the choice?" That is what people are asking. He is without doubt the only really brainy man in the party, but he has not a very good record and he does not hold the party together. His influence is just the opposite. He is a disintegrator. He has more brains than Sir Richard McBride ever had, but he lacks personality and that is the one thing needful in politics.

There is some talk of choosing Major Dick Burde, the member for Alberni, the inveterate enemy of Mr. Bowser, but Dick is no longer a party man. He has been to the front and he returns anything but a hide-bound Conservative. Another thing is that Mr. Burde has hardly the standing of a leader of a great political party. He is the owner and editor of the Port Alberni weekly paper which struggles for existence in a town that is not growing very fast. Before going overseas he was strongly anti-prohibition and there is a large section of the Conservative party that declare they will not stand for any but a temperance man.

Dr. McIntosh, leader of the soldier party in the House and who was elected as a Liberal to represent Vancouver, is looked upon as a possibility but he will not attend the meeting and it would scarcely be dignified for the Conservatives to choose him.

Those who profess to be in the know, and their name is legion, declared that Mr. Bowser must be retained because there is no other man. Mr. Flumerfelt, the capitalist, who was for a few short weeks minister of finance but whom the electors of Victoria rejected, is sometimes mentioned, but not seriously. There seems to be but one man and his name is Bowser.

TWO KILLED, TWO WOUNDED

Shots Exchanged Yesterday at Farrell, Pa., Between Police and Strikers.

Pittsburg, Sept. 23.—(4 p.m.) The forces of organized labor and the United States Steel Corporation are still struggling for control of America's great "Iron Valley" as the nation-wide strike of steel workers enters its second day. At Farrell, Pa., two men were killed and two wounded when shots were exchanged between the company police and the strikers, during a riot near the plant of the American Steel and Wire Company.

BRADLEY FLEW OVER ALPS TO LUCERNE

Geneva, Sept. 23.—Capt Bradley, a British aviator, landed at Lucerne after flying over the Alps and losing his way in the clouds above Mount Blanc, at an altitude of 15,000 feet.

SMITHS

The ladies here are arranging to establish a library and club room for the use of the town's people. One of the Government travelling libraries will form the basis of the collection of books and in addition the latest books of fiction and educational reading matter will be added from local subscriptions. This it is thought will prove a valuable addition to the social life of the town during the coming winter.

An amalgamation of the Rattenbury Lands, Ltd., with other big land owning interests is being arranged and F. M. Rattenbury has gone to England to complete the deal. The main idea of the amalgamation is to arrange for economy in marketing. Head offices will be opened in Vancouver with branches at other centres.
