ONLY LIMERICKS GOOD IN CONTEST

Some Submit Verses Which are Not in Limerick Form and are Disqualified.

In the limerick competition some of the verses are not regular in the number of accented syllables, while other verses have not even the semblance of a limerick. It is not necessary to explain what a limerick is. The verses already published give the idea. The suggestion is made possibly the winning verse is not yet handed in. Although some of those received are good, it is very possible that there may yet be better. It does not cost much to try, and no subject of public interest is debarred. Contestants should write limericks, however, and not sonnets or any other kind of verse. The following are among those received:

Not Wet There.

The Vancouver bunch that I met there, Says in Rupert its dreadfully wet there. We consign them to—well, For a bit of a spell, And they'll find its not wet when they get there.

Vancouver's Envy.

Miss Vancouver, envious and sad, Says, "I've got no drydock. I'm mad. So Prince Rupert's I'll steal." But the duke laid our keel. And the hearts at Prince Rupert were glad.

The Drydock.

There was a drydock came to town, That made of itself a mere clown, But since Mullen came here It has gone at high gear And soon a keel will be down.

A Hullabaloo.

When a hen lays an egg it chuckles "cluck, cluck!" And "quack, quack!" triumphantly chortles the duck, But a red raving crew Makes a hullabaloo When a duke lays a keel by the Inlet of Tuck.

The O. B. U.

In the tight little islands across the sea The King gives to "civvies" the rank O. B. E., But I think O. B. U. Would very well do For the Duke to award in Prince Rupert, B. C.

This is rather a catchy little verse but it is not a limerick and so disqualified:

The Profiteer.

There was a little profiteer, who had a little till Which the height of his ambition was to very quickly fill. He gouged, profiteered, and added to his bill And now that little profiteer is living on the Hill.

"THE SEA FLOWER" AT THE EMPRESS THEATRE

"The Sea Flower" which comes to the Empress tonight stars Juanita Hansen who as Lurline, a white girl, is held on a tropical island in a state of near slavery by her foster father, "Brandy" Cain, a drunkard. A parrot is her only friend.

How she meets the prince charming of whom she has dreamed, is sold into marriage to a brutal sea captain, escapes, is later recaptured and forced to work in a Barbary Coast resort, is finally found by her real father from whom she had been kidnapped, and is restored to her lover's arms when her husband is killed in a raid, makes a story teeming with interest, pathos, and thrills.

REX BEACH STORY AT THE WESTHOLME

Another of Rex Beach's wonderfully realistic stories of the great northland will be seen here again commencing tonight. This time it is "The Brand," a story of Alaska. It embodies all the thrills of the gold camp, and the features which usually go with these stories of life on the edge of civilization.

Those who know and enjoy Rex Beach's yarns will be sure to take in this picture tonight. Mrs. McKenzie and Mrs. Doolittle, of Smithers, who have been visiting in the city for the past several days, returned to their home up river by today's train.

LANDS WANTED FOR SOLDIER SETTLERS.

Powers have been granted to the Soldier Settlement Board of Canada to purchase agricultural land to be resold to qualified returned soldiers settling on land.

To assist soldiers in locating in any suitable district of British Columbia that they wish, the Soldier Settlement Board desires to have filed with them full description and lowest cash prices on a number of select quarter sections available for purchase in each district of the province. Purchases by the Board will be paid for in cash. The public are informed that this land is for purchase by returned soldiers, and must be of good agricultural quality, and reasonable price, making possible the success of the soldier as a farmer. It should be within seven miles of a railway, open, free from weeds, water supply assured, and of moderate price. In giving particulars, mention nearest market and school. In comparison with the vast supply of vacant lands, the number of farms immediately required will be very limited. Owners, therefore, will kindly assist the Board by offering for the present only land which fits the above requirements. No commission will be charged or paid. No offers to sell will be binding on the person offering, unless a sale is effected, and no obligation will be on the Board to accept any offer.

If application from a returned soldier be received for the purchase of land, an inspection and valuation of such land may be made by the Board. If approved negotiations may be entered into for the purchase and sale thereof. An approval list is desired for each district in British Columbia. For lands on mainland of British Columbia, address Superintendent, Soldier Settlement Board, Rogers Building, Vancouver, and for lands on Vancouver Island, address, Soldier Settlement Board, Pemberton Building, Victoria, B. C. SOLDIER SETTLEMENT BOARD, CANADA.
