Wedding Day Coincidence

Three Generations
Of Bridegrooms
Choose November 26

Clarence William Leask, son of one of Metlakatla's best known families, was married in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral on Monday, November 26, which was the same day on which his father, Francis Leask, was married twenty-one years ago and his grandfather, William Leask, forty-eight years ago.

The bride, before a congregation of friends which filled the spacious cathedral, was Miss Mildred Ann Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Robinson of Hartley Bay.

To attend the rite came visitors from various villages of the district and as far away as New Metlakatla, Alaska.

The hour was 2 p.m. and Rev. Canon Basil S. Prockter officiating with Peter Lien, cathedral organist, providing the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Arthur Robinson, wore white satin with lace panel train and trimmed with pearls and crystals. Her bouquet was of carnations and roses.

Matron-of-honor, Mrs. Heber Clifton, jr., chose pink embossed satin with pink net halo and had a nosegay of roses and lilies of the valley.

Cousin of the bride was bridesmaid, wearing white satin with nosegay of roses and lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor were Miss Colleen Ridley, in blue; Ruby Clifton, mauve; Mae Leask, pink, and Vera Wouden, powder blue.

The principal groomsmen were Alvin Leask with other groomsmen, Ted Ryan, Frank Robinson, Willis White and Oliver Leighton.

RECEPTION AT LEGION
Following the ceremony at the cathedral, one hundred or more guests gathered at the Canadian Legion banquet hall where grandfather and father of the groom were hosts at a large reception.

Refreshments featured a beautiful wedding cake made by the mother and Mrs. George Robinson, aunt of the groom. It was duly cut by the bride and groom.

Speeches suitable to the occasion were made by Canon Prockter, Ed Clifton, William Leask, Charles Ryan and James Wil-

Later in the evening a dancing party was held in Oddfellows' hall to further celebrate the occasion. It was filled to capacity. Music was by Four Dukes. Robert Nelson, jr., was master of ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Leask will reside in Prince Rupert after a honeymoon trip to California by motor from Vancouver.

Kids' Day at Civic Centre

Youngsters Have
Time of Lives Every Wednesday Afternoon

Wednesday afternoon is "Kids' Day" at the Civic Centre—there is no doubt about that when 130 youngsters from ages one to six have the time of their lives there, like they did last week.

About 25' of the children are under three years. They are classed as Toddlers and make friends, play with toys new to them, and in general are very pleased to spend an hour under the careful guidance of Mrs. Jack Stirn, Mrs. Vera Faught and Mrs. Margaret Tough, all volunteer workers.

Meanwhile, their mothers who are all Civic Centre members, are out shopping.

Past the three-year stage, the children are classed as Tiny Tots and take in a more active program. Under supervision of Mesdames S. Anderson, F. Peagam, S. Elkins, E. Gordon, K. Harding, D. Forward, J. Bowman and E. Lindseth.

Tiny tots have a lot of fun. They play games, do folk dancing to the music of Mrs. Bowman at the piano and run races. They are well behaved, too, even though not a stern word is spoken by the voluntary supervisors.

A special treat for the elder Tots is the 20 minutes or so in elementary gymnastics with Director Jack Stirn and Fred Calderoni. The main activity goes on in the big gym, but in the small gym with equipment handy, the rudiments of tumbling, even headstands, are taught.

By the time the mothers return from their shopping, or tea, these youngsters have had the opportunity to make friends with children their own age in other sections of the community.

And most of them vigorously agree with the five-year-old, freckle-faced boy who said: "Boy, this is heaps of fun."

Reading, Music, Art For Tots and Juniors

Saturday morning will launch two new activities at the Civic Centre. Reading and music circles for boys and girls from three to six years inclusive will be held under Miss Barbara Doumont and her helpers, Director John Stirn announces.

Designed to help mothers while they are out shopping, these activities will last from 10 a.m. until noon.

Meanwhile, a junior "self-expression" art group will commence at the same time. Age group for this activity is from four to eight years (members only) and entrants should bring pencils. Mrs. John Stirn will be in charge of this group.

Tomorrow night will feature the second event this season of Alaska Music Trail to be held in the auditorium. More information will be found elsewhere in this edition. As an added service, a special bus will leave Port Edward before the concert, returning after.

Elks Boxing Club fight card will be the main attraction Friday night, but also featured will be two dances, square dancing and the Teen Jive Group.

Square dancing will be in the auditorium, with first hour (8 to 9) devoted to instruction of beginners. One-and-a-half hour's dancing follows.

Teen Jive Group is under convener Misses Joan Grimble, Bev Comer, Agnes MacIntosh, Shirley Pierce, Margaret Youngman, and Messrs. Ray Anderson, Ron Ciccone and Fred Kristmanson. The group will meet in the small gym and, if the attendance is large enough, a permanent managing committee will be formed.

Jivers are invited to bring their favorite recordings.

Usual Friday activities will be held also, with exception of Judo training. Both dances are free to Civic Centre members.

Shower For Irene Kildal

A surprise shower was held last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. R. Currie for a December bride-elect, Irene Kildal. Joint hostesses were Mrs. R. Currie, Miss Lil Sylvester and Miss Nellie Bill.

The guest of honor was seated in a lovely decorated chair of pink and white streamers and was presented with a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The evening was spent playing bingo, the winners being Miss Verna Stevens, Miss Yvonne Kildal, Mrs. M. Berg, Mrs. J. Taylor and Mrs. Della Ratchford.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented to the bride-to-be in a small truck.

A toast was proposed by Miss
