Application Before Council In Connection With New Alaska Service

Application of Alaska Ferry & Terminal Co. Inc. for right-of-way on city waterfront property was referred Monday night by city council to the finance committee for report.

The company which proposes to establish a scheduled steamship service including car carrying between here and the various towns in the panhandle of Alaska, intends to construct a landing ramp. A letter to council requested right-of-way over city property for a road to the proposed ramp on the west end of the waterfront.

Ald. George Casey cautioned against any immediate action. "Those are the only two waterfront lots the city owns," he said.

Fish Boat Destroyed

A gasoline explosion is believed by firemen to have started the blaze which destroyed a 25-foot troller at the new fishermen's floats near the drydock at 8 a.m. today and sent a man to hospital.

With burns on hands and face, John Watt, 25, of Piggot Place, is reported in "fair condition." He is a drydock worker and was on the boat at time of explosion.

Firemen said the blaze could have spread to other vessels tied nearby. They cut the burning craft adrift and towed it with rowboat to the beach where it was extinguished. Firemen said the boat was in poor condition. Its owner is not known.

ON RESCUE JOB—CPSS Princess Norah stranded briefly near Powell River yesterday.

Norah Strands In Tug Rescue

Coastal Liner Touches Near Westview—One Trip Cancelled

VANCOUVER — The 2,731-ton Princess Norah of the Canadian Pacific Steamships Tuesday night cancelled her scheduled up-coast run to Powell River after damaging her propeller and hull in trying to help three men being swept ashore in a tug.

Tuesday's storm was another in a succession of blasts which have raked the west coast for a week.

The three-men crew of the tug New Delta lashed themselves to the wheelhouse to keep from being washed overboard when the tug was driven ashore in a howling gale near Westview, port of Powell River.

Capt. Ben Macdonald, Engineer John Argue and Deckhand Harold Eric, all of Vancouver, escaped, soaked but unhurt.

The Princess Norah, with some 200 passengers aboard, stood by helplessly for two hours. She was slightly damaged when Capt. L.W. McDonald tried to get close to the 57-foot tug and a gust of wind swung her into shore.

The Norah touched briefly but got off without difficulty.

The tug was a total loss.

Canadian Pacific Steamships officials said they expected repairs would be completed in time for the Norah to make her usual run Thursday night.

Paris In Spring Musical Romance

A catchy, singing romance laid against a background of Paris in the spring, the technicolor musical "Rich, Young and Pretty," is the week-end feature at the Totem Theatre here opening Thursday. Jane Powell, Danielle Darrieux, Wendell Corey and Fernando Lamas head the cast which also introduces the popular singing star, Vic Damone, as Miss Powell's romantic partner.

The principals are a Texas rancher whose French wife had deserted him twenty years before the story begins and their now grown-up and attractive daughter who has never known her mother and believes her to be dead. Plot complications arise when the cattlemen are forced to make a trip to Paris and reluctantly takes his daughter with him. His former wife, now a Paris night club star, again enters their lives. At the same time the daughter falls in love not only with Paris but with a young government clerk. Various dilemmas are ironed out before a satisfactory conclusion is reached.
