NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port - "Prince Rupert, the Key to the Great Northwest"

VOL. XL, No. 252

Is Eight Clear

LONDON-Latest count folelect on in Britain gives Prime Minister Winston Churchill

and his new government a working majority of eight overall and 19 over Labor. Four constituencies are still to be reported. Mr. Churchill was expected to announce his cab-

Costing More

perty which has increased the

The type of insurance carried including stores or telephone property value by 63 per cent.

Insurance

hat today.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1951

PRICE FIVE CENTS

TER AGROUND-The ore carrier, Geo ge. F. Rand of the Roland and Cornelius Line, Y. lists to starboard after being holed in her port side in collision with another in the St. Clair River. United States coast guard cutter Acacia from Detroit has been nos to help keep the Rand afloat. (CP PHOTO)

couver

Be Forgotten, ve Princess

e Harris, the Indian no left Prince Rupert to Princess Elizabeth behalf of her people rth, appears to have Church.

e," she stated, "delehness, but Vancouver ve me the brush-off. ern Indians will not slight by Vancouver. or three days to meet hen Mrs. Harris went where provincial govuthorities saw the opportunity.

nlarge

f three commission- Rev. R. H. McColl showed col-rom three to five. HOME MISSIONS ew his motion that e the people in the ebiscite. Nearly $20,- in New York

uman's Appeal

K-Wildcat striking n rejected an appeal ent Truman to end broke through pick-ph Ryan of the

ION COURSE

FOR PLEASURE"

vic Centre 29 - Nov. 2 kshop 2 p.m.

ture 8 p.m.

Christian Faith Answer To Canada's Great Need

United Church Presbytery Hears Inspiring Address and Reports

"The United Church faces great possibilities in len, Premier and Mrs. E. C. Man-Canada," Rev. R. S. Christie told the delegates of ning and Mayor and Mrs. Par-Prince Rupert Presbytery meeting in First United Christie brought to the delegates Wednesday evening.

Mrs. O. M. Sanford also brought a message of inspiration, speaking of the work of the Women's Missionary Society in Canada and their missionary work in the world. Mrs. Sanford dealt with "the plus of selfsacrifice" with its great actual and spiritual satisfactions.

At the close of the evening New Alaska leeting the Women's Missionan parks board will meeting the Women's Missionover supervision of ary Society of the church served following December delightful refreshments to the ns. The board now is gathering in the church hall.

ored slides of his work on this ent administration of west coast and of the mission ever, a meeting of boat, the Thomas Crosby IV. ecided this week two At this meeting of the Pres- Girdwood.

ers should be elected, bytery Gideon Scheutze of Bella The festivities got under way will mean election Coola was accepted as a candi- with a dinner-dance at Anchormmissioners, for Ald. date for the ministry of the age. ey's one-year term United Church. Rev. G. M. Tut- The new highway opens the tle of Union College, Vancou- Kenai peninsula and the port nmissioners are Pat ver, stated that there were 26 of Seward to the Alaska highd Art Murray, who students in theology and 15 in way system for the first time. accord that Ald. Arts preparing for the ministry. st council to amend However, the needs of the parks board bylaw, church are such that more men le number of com- are needed for the ministry.

the number of people being ner. gathered into the membership of the church. The work of the the Roosevelt Park student missionaries in the area massionaries in the area was exceptional in bringing the More People in Gospel to many communities on the coast.

In the Social Service report support was given to the B.C Temperance League in its work for the betterment of B.C. and in its plans of publicity and work anticipating the liquor question being presented to the public in the forthcoming elec-meeting were Rev. G. K. King Statistics. and George Wilson of Bella

Few Register

He was jeered by licenseholders have registered for River, gained from 251 to 444. number" of new residents eligible with 446 in 1941. to vote at the civic elections the

This, he said, was shown in the increase in publici utilities bills Sudan Snubs sent out by the city in the last six or seven months. registration and the city clerk's office will remain open from 7 to CAIRO - The Legislative As- Princess Elizabeth, leaving with day life, who think and act like 9 p.m. each of Monday and Tues- sembly of the Sudan, British- her guide, Mrs. Maise Armitage- their fellow Canadians," said day nights. Final figures of the dominated, has rejected the Moore, co-publisher of the Na- Mrs. Harris who, a widow, has High number of voters this year should Egyptian proposal that the Su- live Voice. be available by November 1 or 2, dan be put under the exclusive At Victoria, says Mrs. Harris, and a daughter finishing High Low Mr. Long said.

"The church has the answer to Bella; Rev. L. L. Scheutze and Canada's needs. The answer is R. E. Sneyd of Bella Coola; Rev in the hands of the people. We H. S. Forbes and R. Sawyer of o present the brooch call upon the people to profess Ocean Falls; Rev. H. M. Wingtheir faith in Jesus Christ, We field and Mrs. G. H. Jolliffe of have a passion for the souls of Skidegate Mission, Queen Charmen. I can't ask more of church lottes; Rev. P. H. Mallett and people but God can and does. Mrs. W. Martin, Terrace; Rev. And God has asked me to speak H. I. Hare, Mrs. Gilmour and for Him." This message Mr. Mr. Simons, administrator of Wrinch Memorial Hospital from Hazelton; Rev. R. H. Woollam and Ed Milton of Smithers; Rev. T. C. Colwell and James MacKay of Port Simpson; Rey. R. Con-

nal from Kitimat; Rev. R. H.

McColl and Mrs. H. E. McColl

of Central Mainland Marine

ANCHORAGE. - The Anchor age-Seward highway was officially opened in a ceremony at

It is a 127-mile link through scentic country and over rugged construction obstacles. The whole route is scheduled for asphalt surfacing next year.

The Home Mission committee | Notables taking part in the cation of Roosevelt ment. This was increased active- terior Secretary Dale E. Doty, ed for general park ly in building such as the new Delegate E. L. Bartlett and Lieuwas Mr. Forman's church house at Kitimat and in tenant General William E. Kep- long time."

McBride Shows Gain-Phenomenal Census Increase for Dawson Creek

Freliminary census totals for citas, towns and incorporated villages are beginning to be is- Rupert, who escorted Mrs. Har- loom of her family used for the Delegates to this Presbytery sued by the Dominion Bureau of ris to Her Royal Highness.

> village of McBride which re- around to be viewed by all of- of Mrs. Moore for some time. ports a population of 490 in 1951 ficials present, because, as Mr. In the hotel lobby, where the as compared with 237 in 1941. Kenney pointed out, it would be presentation was made, an Creek shows a phenomenal in- heirloom will be seen." crease in the ten years from 518 The bracelet, said Mrs. Har- "People were looking every-en's Union appeared Only 20 householders and five Pouce Coupe, also in the Peace cheered by non- the voters' list so far, a figure | Stewart, hit by a recession in which City Clerk R. W. Long said the mining industry, reports a today was "far from the actual count of 283 in 1951 compared

October 31 is the final day for King Farouk sovereignty of King Farouk,

Drove Self To Hospital After Shot

tion in hospital here after having been shot through the chest while cleaning his shotgun.

pital with a gaping wound in his chest, close to the heart. He was cleaning his light shotgun in his garage when it discharged into his chest. Despite the wound, he climbed into his car and drove to hospital lowing Thursday's general where he collapsed.

Kyle drove himself to hos-

Princess Elizabeth in Alberta capital This Aitermoon

EDMONTON — This Alberta capital staged a right royal welcome this afternoon to Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip.

Their Royal Highnesses acrived at the CNR station at 2 p.m. to be greeted by Lieutenant Cov- to pay $850 more a year in in-

After inspecting a guard of honor, the Princess and the entourage proceeded to the Legislative Buildings and then to an oil refinery for an inspection of that industry in operation.

This evening the Licaterant Governor and Mrs. Bowlen will tender a dinner at the Macdonald Hotel after which the royal party will attend a football Long said. match at the Stadium.

At midnight the royal train by the city is a "replacement loss leaves for Saskatoon. After a blanket" insurance. If any of the drive through the streets of that city buildings or contents should city, divine service will be at- be destroyed by fire, actual cost tended at St. John's Cathedral, of replacement will be borne by Then departure will be made by the insurance company. plane for Fort William and Port

Truman Sends Congratulations

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Presi- he said had previously been valdent Truman sent a message of ued at $10,000 and was now apcongratulation yesterday to praised for $30,000. Other main Prime Minister-elect Winston properties include the city hall, Churchill of Great Britain. The fire hall, $30,000, city warehouse, text of the message was not dis- museum contents. Pioneers'

Native Princess Home After Seeing Elizabeth

Now it is $6,344.

Mrs. Irene Harris Had Thrilling Experience In Victoria

A native "princess" is back at her household light. report was one of encourage- ceremony included Assistant In- duties today following her return from Victoria but Hugo by radio telephone last she will remember her first visit to the capital "a night that some people were in sigukla and Port Edward met was assisted with her grooming the stranded people to safety. face to face with Her Royal by a beautician. She wore a wine Highness Princess Elizabeth last velvet evening gown, topped by Monday. With brief ceremony Princess Antquillilbicks (Roaring Canyon) gave the royal lady a gift on behalf of all B.C. In- green velvet and mink coat and dians—a golden bracelet en- evinced much interest in her graved with the Fin Back, tribal native visitor. crest of the Indian royalty.

The presentation was planned by Hon, E. T. Kenney, minister toast was proposed to Mrs. Harof lands and forests, and by ris by officials which she drank Jack McRae, MLA for Prince from a wooden spoon, an heir-

Face River town of Dawson "the last time this valuable amusing incident happened, reris, dated back probably 100 where for the Indian princess. years-"maybe more." The pres- Some asked me where she was. entation was made following the I said I didn't know and I lookprovincial luncheon at the Em- ed around for her myself." Mrs. press Hotel, which Mrs. Harris Harris was reminded by Mrs. attended.

The Indian princess, descend- people were looking for. ant of a long line of chiefs, left "All the Indians of this dishere by plane a week ago yes- trict are very thankful that terday to present the gift in had this memorable opportunity. Vancouver. However, the itiner- It meant a lot to our native ary of the royal couple was people who are playing a new planned without this presenta- role as citizens. tion and Mr. Kenney, telephon- "Provincial officials and othing from Victoria, arranged for ers had the opportunity to see her trip to the capital on the Indians as they are in every-

a mink fur coat. The Princess was wearing

Following the presentation, a coronation of chiefs, Mrs. Har-Just before this memorable ris's mother, Chief Na-gwah, lates Mrs. Harris.

Moore that it was herself the a son serving with the RCAF she was royally treated. In her School in Prince Rupert.

Churchill Lead Travelers Caught in Highway Flood

Prince Rupert Isolated

Four Inches of Rain—Transport and Communications Cut

Torrential downpour of rain, wind-whipped by 40-mile-an-hour gusts, has completely isolated Prince Rupert from communication with outside points in the last 20 hours and has disrupted railway and highway service to this city, causing near tragedy last night.

Stanwood left this morning with Four inches of rain in the last Mr. Kraupner for an eye-wit-24 hours have swollen creeks and streams, washing out bridges ness story of the flood. on rail lines and highway. tions were knocked out last

Prudhomme Lake area flooded yesterday, trapping an Austin City of Prince Rupert will have car with three occupants in four feet of swirling flood waters in surance premium rates, following the darkness. the recent appraisal of city pro-

Situation-2 p.m. Former appraisal, made some Weather-Still raining with years ago, was $278,503 for city near nil visibility. buildings and contents, said City Railway-Line still blocked Clerk R. W. Long today, Recent between Prince Rupert and appraisal by Robert S. Day & Terrace. Last night's west-Sons Ltd. showed present insurbound train turned east from able value of $454,507, or an in-Terrace. Last night's train for crease of $174,004, "most of which East still here. is in stock and equipment," Mr. Highway-Closed to traffic until further notice. Washouts near Kasiks River and Amsbury, Copper River bridge in danger. Washout risks near Manson Creek and Copper River ferry.

Air Service - Planes still grounded because of low ceil-Premium for the past threeing and poor visibility. "No year insurance term was $3,816. flights between Sandspit and Prince Rupert since first flight All city buildings and contents departure yesterday. are covered, said the city clerk, Telegraphs-Still down, equipment and materials, water Princess Louise for Vancouver pumping station and the chlorithis afternoon. nation plant, the latter of which Other persons returning from east of the lake area were caught in the floods but managed to reach dry land by themselves. A jam of logs and debris at the Kloyah Creek dam is believed to be the cause of the Occupants of the Austin car practically covered with water, were not known by name.

Steamships - Normal,

Eye witnesses to the incident are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kraup- scores. ner, who live nearby, and Hugo Kraupner of this city, who assisted the three people in reaching safety from the flood waters by guiding them with a flash-

Mrs. Kraupner notified her son trouble. Then she and 72-yearold Mr. Kraupner waded into the Daily News reporter Larry yesterday, having accepted the One of the first to report in occasion, says Mrs. Harris, the was the last to use the spoon, invitation of King George VI to Riots, Tehran central British Columbia is the golden bracelet was passed which has been in the custody form a new government, took Riots, Tehran office as Prime Minister less than five hours after his Conservatives had clinched victory in anti-Churchill demonstra- of the disput over control there. over the Labor party in the gen- tions in Tehran today. Among eral election.

Old Conservative Chief Back As Prime Minister Soon After Election

> any of the parties who were not named "Mossadegh.". returned to Parliament in the All principal Labor leaders were re-elected even though the party, as a whole, was defeated. Prime Minister Attlee, Foreign Annette Island Secretary Herbert Morrison, Aneurin Bevan and a large group and officers in the Labor government were returned to the Sunday, October 28, 1951

House.

20.6 feet

was today appointed foreign secretary in the new government formed by Winston Churchill to take over Britain's after six and a half year's of socialist rule.

Eden headed the list of cabinet appointments. Churchill will be miister of Minister. Other posts: of Exchequer, Chancellor Richard Butler: Common-til tonight at the earliest, CNR Lyttleton. Home Secretary, Sir David Maxwell Fyfe.

> Lord Woolton will be Lord culture.

ing through Digby Island Radio telephone communica-Monckton. tion to Vancouve is out of quis of Salisbury.

office says. The highway also is washed out at Kwinitsa, Shames and Amsbury, Greatest difficulty is in lack of communication, which has broken off to all points. Radio communication is out as well. CPA reports yesterday's first

Meanwhile, rail communica-

night in three places near Kwin-itsa, 40 miles east of here, and all train movements ceased un-

Telephone and telegraph

lines went out at 3 p.m. yesterday and have not been replaced. Normal news dispatches were held up today.

Emergency messages were go-order. It may be either atmospheric or line trouble, telephone officials said.

wireless.

flight for Vancouver from Prince Rupert-and the only one -was forced to return to Sandspit and has not yet completed the flight. Poor visibility prevented aircraft Canso from landing here on the return. Some 15 passengers are stranded at Sandspit, and no flight leaves here for Vancouver until the aircraft returns.

NO FOOTBALL SCORES

Almost complete tie-up of communications into Prince Rupert today on account of storm conditions makes it impossible to publish the regular Saturday Old Country football

City has notified Seal Cove For Mrs. Irene 'Harris of Kit- room at the Empress Hotel she water with flashlights to direct Parent-Teachers' Association that a telephone has been installed at the Seal Cove school, following request of the School Board secretary, Mrs. M. M. Roper.

> tion had recently protested to the city at the delay in installing the telephone and some exception was taken by the school board to the association going Suez Blockade over its head.

LONDON (CP) — Winston Anti-Churchill Churchill, just turning 77, late Anti-Churchill

other things, they demanded There are few top leaders of that a "Churchill" Street be re- Natives May of the parties who were not named "Mossadegh."

of erstwhile cabinet ministers been unable to land at Annette Cates, provincial minister of la-Island since yesterday owing to bor, for an amendment to the overcast. Planes from Seattle Indian Act. have been going on to Juneau where conditions are better.

feet mild with intermittent rain, son, J. Karkle, G. Milburn, V. 5.9 feet Sunday, cloudy. Maximum tem- Ross, Y. Mackenzie, Mrs. R. Heath 4.5 feet perature, 52.

Cabinet Appointed

LONDON -Anthony Eden

defence as well as Prime wealth Relations, Lord Ismay. Colonia! Secretary, Oliver

Eden will also be deputy prime minister.

President of Council with responsibility for food and agri-

Minister of Labor, Walter Lord Privy Seal and Leader of the House of Lords, Mar-

No Progress

MUNSAN, Korea-Truce negotiators met for another two hours late yesterday but made no progress towards a settlement of a cease-fire line. Communists want the 38th parallel but United Nations insist on roughly fifteen miles north

Charles Ryan,

Charles Ryan, one of Port Simpson's best known native citizens, passed away yesterday in the city. He was a veteran of Canadian Mounted Rifles in World War One. Remains are being sent home to Port Simpson for interment.

Many Deposits Are Forfeited

LONDON.-The British treasury will collect nearly £15,000 from candidates in the general election Thursday who lost their deposits because they did not poll more than one-eighth of The Parent-Teacher Associa- the total vote in the ridings where they ran.

CAIRO—The Foreign Secretary of Egypt says he fears Prime Minister-elect Winston Churchill of Great Britain may retard the removal of British forces TEHRAN. - Students indulged from the Suez and a settlement

VICTORIA.—Indians of British Columbia will be permitted to enter beer parlors if Ottawa KETCHIKAN. - Aircraft have accepts a proposal by Hon, J. H.

air passengers

For Vancouver (today) - O. Coyle, J. Sparks, B. Adams, W. R. Prince Rupert - Cloudy and Jackson, J. R. Wood, A. Robertand F'. Howard.