FRISBIE

the friendly motor

Frisbie Motors give long, uninterrupted service with practically no repairs except occasional grinding of valves. Valves in cages; accessible in a few seconds. An "all muscle" construction throughout, every part designed for hard work. Overhead valves, opening directly into combustion chambers. No pockets or crevices to gather carbon, and waste fuel. This type of construction effects a gain of 15 to 20 per cent. more power than is possible with L or T-Head designs. Intake and exhaust manifolds are cast integral with the cylinder; miles ahead of the old, leaky, bolted-on manifolds. Large valves insure full charge on the intake and a complete, clean exhaust.

1 to 6 CYLINDERS—5 to 75 HORSEPOWER

Frisbie Motors are made in following sizes: 1-cyl., 5 and 7 H.P.; 2-cyl., 10 and 16 H.P.; 3 cyl., 18 and 25 H.P.; 4-cyl., 30 and 40 H.P.; 6-cyl., 50 and 75 H.P.—Bore and Stroke, 4 1/2" x 5" and 6" x 6". For work or play, the Frisbie will measure up to your hardest tests.

THIS IS LAST DAY FOR LIMERICKS IN PRIZE COMPETITION

Entries continue to come in for the limerick competition which closes this evening at six o'clock. Those wishing to send in contributions must do so at once. The verses will be published on Monday and the winner in all probability on Tuesday. The following are some of those recently submitted:

They may sneer, they may jeer
at the rain;
It is surely a great source of gain.

Both as water and ice
It brings a high price;
Eighteen hundred a barrel!
How insane!

The Fair.
The elements frowned on the Fair,
But just the same we folks were there.
Those three days it rained—
Well—really it pained;
But then—what the deuce do we care!

Not Wet.
A stranger from steamer just in
Met Rupert girl drenched to the skin;
And asked, "Are you wet?"
Said she: "No not yet."
And passed with a bad, little grin.

The Bear Hunter.
Oh, there was a man with a gun;
He got a big bear on the run;
The bear quickly turned,
The trail the man hurried,
Crying wildly, "Oh, hunting's no fun!"

The Whistle.
Oh, I am so glad of the dock;
My reason may give you a shock;
Each morning and noon—
It's really a boon—
I set by its whistle my clock.

The Limerick Maker.
Ah me! my poor soul it is quaking;
I find no rest sleeping or waking;
Harassed all the time,
I'm seeking a rhyme.
Oh, spare me from limerick making!

The Mayor.
There was once a Mayor at the City Hall
Who would not stand for Sunday baseball,
But he should stop hooting,
And go Sunday shooting.
Then the sporting vote he would get all.

Bold Profiteer.
There once was a bold profiteer
Who filled this town full of hot air.
With soft words of honey
He extracted our money
And now he lives free from all care.

The Duke.
There came to this town a great Duke
(Who must have come here by some fluke).
He was feted and praised
And he said "I'm amazed
To see mountains wherever I look."

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bohler, of Kitsumkalum, who took so many prizes at the Prince Rupert Exhibition are showing a big display of agricultural products at the Smithers Fair which takes place Tuesday next.

ALICE ARM MINE SOLD

Local Men Purchase Property Including Five Claims and a Fraction.

Alice Arm, Sept. 27.—The Royal group of five claims and a fraction adjoining the Dolly Varden and the David Copperfield was bought today for cash by J. Miller of Prince Rupert, Charles E. Betts of Prince Rupert, and David Jas. Hancock of Alice Arm. This is the only property that has changed hands this year for cash without a bond.

The property consists of nearly 300 acres and is very valuable as it is located close to the Dolly Varden, and the David Copperfield. The consideration was large and the property warrants extensive development.

MICHAEL J. NOONE TO HIGHER COURT

Committed for trial this morning by Magistrate McMordie on Charge of Administering Drugs.

In the police court this morning Michael Noone, accused of unlawfully administering drugs with intent to commit an indictable offense, was committed for trial by Magistrate McMordie. It is understood that he will elect for speedy trial and will come before the judge on Monday for election.

E. Rundall was fined ten dollars for being drunk and disorderly.

Mrs. Michael Kostiw of Anyox and her two little sons were also admitted for treatment. The little ones are aged three and four years and will be operated on for tonsils and adenoids.
