The highest prices in the history of the fishery are being paid for black cod on the local market.

Monday, the Taplow, Capt. Jacob Strand, landed 20,000 pounds at a price of 21.3 cents for large fish over six pounds and 121/2 cents for those between 41/2 and six pounds. The Taplow made an earlier trip, which brought 20 cents for large fish and 12 cents for the smaller size. The Balzac, Capt. E. Telseth, received the same prices for its load. The only loads delivered to date, the three went to B. C. Packers at Seal Cove.

Other boats now on the ground are the Island Queen, Capt. Perry York; Signal, Capt. Vic Fossum, and the Sea Mount, working out of Vancouver,
