SENIOR "B" TITLE PLAY—

Prince George Clippers Coming to Rupert Soon

Prince George Clippers, fast-moving Senior B basketball squad from the interior, are coming to Prince Rupert March 23 and 24 to meet Prince Rupert Jets in the Central British Columbia play-offs for the right to meet the southern B.C. champions for the provincial title. Our pictures show the Clippers' first string.

Considerable play has yet to take place in the south before the opponents for Prince Rupert or Pentiction in the final at Prince Rupert are determined.

Vancouver Arctics and Victoria Falcons were to start a series last night in the quarter-finals in that area. The winners of that area will meet the southern interior winners in the semi-final. The southern interior play-offs have yet to be determined between winners of the Kootenay district and winners of the Kamloops-Okanagan district.

The present provincial Senior B champions are Pentiction who won over Prince Rupert in the final at Pentiction last spring.

DOUG PREST
Team Captain, plays guard

HAROLD PERSONS
Playing Coach, plays guard

ERIC ROBINSON
Top forward on Prince George team. May not be able to attend series.

ART HARVEY
High School player, playing his first year of senior ball.

DOUG WINTON
Young aggressive guard

Chiropractors Score Point

QUEBEC. — Chiropractors of Quebec, whose efforts to obtain recognition have been laughed out of legislature committee rooms for years, have made their first gain. A private bill to create the College of Chiropractors of the Province of Quebec has been squeezed through committee.
