Upset in Local Baseball

Gordon & Anderson
Down Abel & Odowes
In Thriller

Although the upset outcome of Sunday afternoon's baseball game did not harm the top position team, Abel & Odowes, it added one more win to the third-place team and gave spectators a thrilling ball game.

In a terrific last-inning rally, Gordon & Anderson drove in four runs to overcome the league winners by a score of 9-8.

Lots of startling things happened in the game as one of the biggest Sunday crowds attending a league game whistled and stomped their appreciation of the hard-trying cellar-boys.

Gerry Ford, G & A's rookie, got his first real chance to show what he can do during the long season for him on the bench. In five times at bat, Ford reached base four times, once on an error, and the other times—one single, a double and a triple—the last in the final inning which brought in three runs to win the game.

Alex Bill, Clothiers' manager, gave most of his pitching stock a chance on the mound—four of them—with Ian McHardy taking the last trip for the two innings and losing the game.

Fitching all the way for G & A was Larry Matthews who was nearly always in trouble but each time managed to squeeze himself out of it by a narrow margin.

Game also featured the first triple play of the season when, in the eighth inning, two of G & A's base runners and a batter were picked off in one play. Ford stood up on second with a line drive double, when Spring came into the batter's box and was walked. On a dropped ball by Catcher Dave Abel, both Ford and Spring advanced a base, with Matthews at bat.

The youthful hurler, hitting once for three, grounded out to Giordano, shortstop. First baseman Cliff Dahl whipped the ball to second, which reached Tom Pope in time for Spring's out. Pope fired the ball into Abel's mitt to catch Ford coming home, about four feet from the plate.

Art Olson, another baseball rookie and first time on the mound, went in for Abel & Odowes to start the game. But he had no control and after three walks and four hits was replaced by Sharpe in the second inning. Letourneau took over in the sixth, bringing the score to three runs ahead for his team, 8-5, and McHardy, pitching from the eighth inning, lost the four runs.

Four runs were brought in by G & A off Olson in the second inning, but they remained scoreless until the eighth, when Ford batted in Scherk with a double.

In the last of the ninth, Catcher Young led off, grounding out to second baseman. Andy Marshall was walked and Sunberg got aboard by an error on Second Baseman Pope. Cornwell grazed a whistler in to the wrong field, the left hander batting right hand, Shortstop Giordano still playing him near second base. A run came in on Cornwell's hit. Hartwig then grounded out to short.

Scherk was passed on balls, loading the bases when Gerry Ford threw in his big surprise package of the season, batting in three runs with his triple, a rising liner into right field, practically dead on first base line.

The game featured a lot of bunting as well, and several long hits. Cliff Dahl, veteran first baseman, brought in most runs for the Clothiers and showed some terrific base running and stealing. And Vic Dell, Clothiers' right fielder, practically hitless all season, clouted one over Cornwell's head for a stand-up double.

Next game will not be on Tuesday as at first scheduled, but play-offs in the semi-finals between G & A and Commercial, begin Thursday evening, regular time. No series games, unless postponed, will be played Tuesday, the association announced yesterday.

Prince Rupert Wins Football

City Defeated Kitwanga
By Score of 5-1

The Prince Rupert Football Association selected team won from Kitwanga football team on Saturday by five goals to one.

Play started on even terms and Krause did well to save from Kelly Morgan. Then the Kitwanga goalie stopped Smith's shot but failed to clear before the ball crossed the line and the city team were a goal up. The goalie was lucky a moment later when he saved a shot from Cameron that seemed to be over the line. Krause saved brilliantly from George Williams.

Kitwanga re-arranged their line-up in the second half. The city team had the better of the exchanges and Smith added a second goal. Then Murray made it three to nil. Cameron hit the upright and Murray collected the rebound to make it four to nil. Wyatt stopped a Kitwanga attack. Darrow Gomez fed a perfect pass to Cameron who relayed it to Smith and the latter added his third and the team's fifth goal. In the last five minutes the native team attacked and Richard Morgan readed a good goal after Krause had saved. Full time score: Prince Rupert, five; Kitwanga one.

VISITORS OUTPLAYED

The Kitwanga team was outplayed and did not improve their chances by arguing the referee's decisions. At one time it seemed that the game would have to be stopped. This sort of conduct spoils the game for everybody and as usual it was the losing team that did the talking.

Krause kept a grand goal. Wyatt and John Wilson were sound and reliable. A Gomez played a strong game and Darrow Gomez and Ford completed a resourceful half-back line. Ralph Smith with three goals and Murray with two goals were the marksmen, but Cameron and Armstrong were equally good with Verhaer also playing well.

Softball Play-offs

The don'ts-header between Terrace, Firemen and Rupert Radio was cancelled when Terrace telephoned they would be unable to come down.

Meanwhile, play-offs start tonight in the local league and will find Hawks meeting Firemen in the first game of a best-of-three series. Both teams will be out to win this important first game.

Probable starting pitchers will be Lloyd Lahti for the Hawks and Art Olsen for the Smokies. The winner of this series will

17-Year-Old Girl Champ

LAVAL-SUR-LE-LAC — Marlene Stewart, 17-year-old girl caddy scored one of golf's most sensational upsets Saturday by winning the Canadian ladies' open golf tournament one-up from Grace Lenczyk of Hartford, Connecticut, in the 36-hole final.

It was the second big win for the Ontario girl within a week. She had previously taken the Canadian ladies' closed championship.

Then meet the league winning Rupert Radio nine in a best-of-five series.
