FRUIT STORES MAY NOW SELL FIVE POUNDS

Quantities Above That Amount Are Barred After 6:30 According to Bylaw Just Passed by Council.

When is a fruit store a fruit store and if it is not a fruit store what is it? This was one of the questions that seemed to be puzzling some of the aldermen at the meeting of the City Council at their meeting last night.

Last week it was decided that a fruit store, so far as the City Council was concerned, should be a place where fruit in larger quantities than ten pounds at a time was sold. When the bylaw came up for final reconsideration last night Alderman McRae asked to have the ten pound clause eliminated and classify the fruit store as any place where fruit was sold.

A long and discursive discussion followed in which a delegation of retail merchants, L. M. Fuller and George Munro, took part. They backed up Alderman McRae's suggestion, but the City Council refused to comply with the request, only Aldermen McRae and McMeekin voting for it. The Council then changed the ten pound limit to five pounds.

The Delegation.
Mr. Munro, addressing the Council, said that most of the fruit sales were less than ten pounds. He was not concerned with the matter of quantity, he wanted a straight classification. If this went through a good many stores would have no classification whatever. The whole discussion was whether fruit should be sold in the evening or not. He thought they should make a proper classification and then if necessary change the closing law to conform with it. This tampering with classification would lead to trouble. The retail merchants took the stand that there should be no discrimination. If this passed it would be worse than before.

Mr. Fuller said that 99 out of 100 of the sales would be for less than ten pound lots. It was easy to split a crate of fruit in half and sell it in two lots. Each of the aldermen had something to say in regard to the clause and finally the mayor moved that the committee rise without reporting, which they did. That left the bylaw as before. Then on motion of Alderman McMeekin it was decided to go into committee once more and reduce the amount that might be sold under the classification to five pounds. Alderman Barrie was chairman of committee.

Want Privilege.
Mayor McClymont said he thought the people wanted the privilege of buying a little fruit in the evening and the effect of the classification would be to stop them doing so unless the protecting clause was left in. The question arose did the council represent the public or the retail merchants. He was opposed to closing the stores last week and he had not changed his mind since. He thought the people had just as much right to buy a little fruit in the evening as tobacco.

Alderman Rochester also championed the evening fruit sellers and Aldermen McRae and McMeekin opposed, although the latter admitted that he thought the people wanted to be able to purchase fruit in the evening. He said that the merchants had to be considered.

As the bylaw was finally passed it reads that any store selling fruit in quantities over five pounds is a fruit store.

COLTS OPEN SEASON BY BASKETBALL WIN

The Colts Athletic Association basketball team defeated the Red Sox yesterday by a score of ten to two. This was the first game of the season and there were few spectators but at the next match a larger crowd is expected.

The Colts carried off the honors a baseball this year and they expect to win in basketball.

Next Thursday the Colts football team plays Robert Arthur's Rangers.
