If you've been waking up these mornings suffering from the hgih living of the holiday season, don't be alarmed. Plain wholesome food and plenty of rest is the cure for post-holiday dyspep-

If you're also getting up with empty pockets, that's another problem. About the only answer is a New Year's resolution to do better—to begin setting aside a few shekels in advance for next

Before the last war several of the banks used to maintain "Christmas Club" accounts. Men, women and children could contribute 50 cents, $1, or $5 weekly, and at the end of the year found themselves with a nice little stack of money for Christmas spending.

If there's a bank in your town which still gives the public "Christmas Club" - now's the time to join. If there isn't-open a savings account. Even "sugar" tin in the kitchen cupboard is handy for stray nickels In New Year and dimes.
