Is Honored At McBride

Railwayman Peter Titiryn Retires

McBRIDE—A Ukrainian-born railway section foreman, Peter Titiryn, who came to Canada as a boy, will conclude almost half a century of railroading in the west when he retires July 1 from the Canadian National Railway.

Mr. Titiryn, located in McBride since 1925, started his rail career in 1902 as a track laborer on construction in Manitoba. He then joined the Grand Trunk Pacific at Portage la Prairie in 1906, moved west with construction gangs and served on various sections of the Canadian National Railway's Smithers division since 1910.

Proud possessor of an engraved watch, still in use, given to him by a Grand Trunk Pacific Railway vice-president in 1914 for the part he played as a young section foreman in connection with joining up of steel near Fort Fraser, Mr. Titiryn now has an additional, treasured memento, from another top railway executive, to mark the closing of his long career.

At a farewell presentation ceremony held in Pete's honor last week, the popular section foreman received a well-filled purse from Roadmaster E. S. Foster on behalf of fellow workers. During the ceremony, however, Mr. Titiryn was greatly surprised when Mr. Foster handed him a telegram from the "Big Boss" President Donald Gordon.

The message read: "Understand your associates are meeting today on the eve of your retirement to pay tribute to you personally and to your fine record of service with the railway, all performed in Western Canada and dating back to the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific main line. I recall with pleasure meeting you for a few moments on the line last year and would like the privilege of joining your friends today in expressing appreciation of your excellent services to the railway and the country of your adoption and in extending warmest wishes for your future health and happiness."

Mr. Titiryn well recalled having met Mr. Gordon when the CNR president was making his first western tour in May, 1950, shortly after taking over his new post, on January 1, last year. But the wiry little section foreman didn't dream that the "Chief" would ever remember being told that Pete had just

Francois Lake

George Hadden of the Unemployment Insurance Commission of Prince George is spending a month working in this district.

Mrs. Robert Gordon of Prince Rupert is visiting for a month with her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Antilla, at Southbank.

The Francois Lake ball team drove round the head of the lake to Wistaria on Sunday and played the Wistaria team there. The visiting team won.

Warm sunshine is welcome but rain is badly needed for the hay and crops and gardens.

Trout fishing has been excellent in the lake and, although rather early yet for char, a few have been brought in.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott left on Thursday for a week's holiday in Vancouver and Williams Lake. Mrs. Rensby and a friend are staying with the Scott children.

Mrs. Roy Morton has her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, staying with them from Victoria.

at the Snyder ranch, coming down to the lakeshore at the church and riding east as far as the old Ford farm. They had lunch on the lakeshore near the Jeffrey farm and then rode back by way of the Peebles road.

TERRACE COMMUNITY

MacDonnell and Colonel Scott left the meeting and debate was called for. On their return they were informed that an interim committee had been formed to inquire into all the details of acquiring and operating a hospital with a view to taking this one over if possible. The village commissioners would not assume the responsibility of the village taking it over.

In closing, Colonel Scott wished to express on behalf of the Society and himself all those who had, each year, assisted with the hospital including George Little senior whose generosity has given the hospital building.

Relations here had been most happy but a shortage of nurses had hampered the smooth operation of the hospital. He expressed the hope that the community would realize that the Red Cross had stepped in and brought a hospital to Terrace when it would have been impossible otherwise.

H. M. Wightman, president of the local branch of the Red Cross Society, was chairman of the meeting and was also asked to act as chairman of the interim committee formed. Others
