

Surprised Over No Cadet Corps

Surprise was expressed by Rev. A. L. Gillard of Esquimalt, west coast command chaplain, that with the naval facilities available in Prince Rupert, there is not a Sea Cadet Corps in this city.

Chaplain Gillard, who returns to the south on the Prince Rupert tonight, will be making a tour of Sea Cadet Corps in the province.

Awaiting word from the Navy League of Canada, Lt. Cmdr. J. W. Golby, executive officer of HMCS Chatham, explained to the chaplain that they will be ready to give support to the corps should it be formed here.

Chaplain Gillard arrived here aboard the Prince Rupert yesterday on naval duties.

Navigation Instruction

Instruction in navigation will be given officers and men in HMCS Chatham on Sunday evenings.

Lt. Cdr. J. W. Golby, executive officer of Chatham, who served as navigation officer in several ships during the war, said, "this class will prove both interesting and valuable to the young men of Prince Rupert."

ALASKA INVASION—

Prince Rupert Sending Two Basketball Teams North This Week-end

Prince Rupert may send two basketball teams north this week-end. They sail on the Princess Norah tomorrow and return next Wednesday afternoon.

The Jets are slated to play Friday and Monday at Ketchikan and Saturday and Tuesday at Metlakatla.

Both Memorial will send their BoMeHi team for a series at both Petersburg and Wrangell high schools—subject to school board approval.

The Jets will be coached by Alex Bill and Fred Calderoni of the Civic Centre staff who will be team manager. The nine players who will make the trip are Jim Platen, Ray Spring, Don and Syd Scherk, Rupert Holkestad, Sonny Beynon, Bob Gill, Harold Marshall and Art Olson.

Last year the Jets lost two games to Metlakatla and broke even in their Ketchikan series, losing one and winning one. This year it is Coach Alex Bill's ambition to beat Metlakatla on their own floor, a feat that hasn't been accomplished in many years. The Metlakatlans have just won the All-Alaska tournament and, as usual, they will be mighty tough opposition when on their home floor.

The High School trek northwards was being arranged in a hurry this morning after Coach Jack Evans had long-distance calls from Wrangell and Petersburg inviting them to play. The Alaskan teams were not able to guarantee quite enough money and the Student Council was unable to supply additional funds, so the boys each decided to pay a substantial share of their return fare and the trip was on. Coach Jack Evans will have the following players on his squad: Bill McChesney, Bud Ratchford, Lawrence Kristmanson, Fred Simonson, Derek Letourneau, Dick Nickerson, Bill Morrison, Darell Young, Henry Blackaby.

Detroit And Boston Tie

BOSTON—Detroit Red Wings and Boston Bruins played to a one-all draw in the National Hockey League here last night. The Red Wings now have a four-point margin over Toronto Maple Leafs for leadership in league standing.

Toronto Maple Leafs play the Canadiens in Montreal tonight and New York Rangers will meet the Black Hawks at Chicago.

The league standings:

	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Detroit	34	13	12	190	126	81
Toronto	32	13	12	179	116	77
Boston	19	16	24	147	164	54
New York	17	18	23	138	165	52
Montreal	19	12	27	134	154	50
Chicago	13	10	36	150	213	36
