Refusal to Investigate Breeds Suspicion.

It seems a pity that the House of Commons should have refused to investigate the charges made against Premier Borden and Hon. Arthur Meighen by D. D. McKenzie in regard to the juggling of soldiers' votes in Manitoba during the last election. We know nothing of the right or wrong of the charges, but the refusal to investigate breeds suspicion and leads people to think there is something to hide. If everything is correct and fair why fear an investigation? To clear up the charge would simply throw back the odium on those making it. As it is the leader of the opposition has scored heavily.

Good to be Scotchman In Prince Rupert.

It is a good thing to be a Scotchman in Prince Rupert. The people from north of the Tweed have a club all their own and an organization that not only provides a social centre for all fellow countrymen in the city, but also welcomes those who return home from the war. Every man who fought overseas and brought home a bride was presented with something valuable to help in setting up housekeeping and every man who fought was given an address of appreciation and an official welcome. It is indeed good to be a Scotchman. The Northern folk are to be congratulated on their organization.

Can Unionists Hold Together as Party?

The Victoria Daily Times which has been since the first a strong supporter of the Unionist Government and was no small factor in helping to elect Dr. Tolmie and C. J. McIntosh for two Island constituencies, says:

"Notwithstanding the efforts that are being made to establish the Unionist party on a sound basis, there are so many obstacles in its path that it is a bold prophet who will venture to predict with any degree of certainty that it will be in existence a year from now. It was an expedient dictated by the exigencies of war and, like most expedients of its kind, it is exceedingly difficult to adjust to the conditions of peace.

"The war mentality and the peace mentality are two absolutely antagonistic things, and war governments seldom survive more than a short time beyond the peculiar stage for which they are created. They are invariably composed of elements which, while united on war policy, are hopelessly irreconcilable in respect of the problems of peace. The high protectionist and low tariff members of the present Unionist party at Ottawa cannot find a common understanding unless one or the other groups throw their convictions and principles overboard, in which case they will find it hard to square themselves with their constituents. Leadership of the Government, therefore, is beset with formidable complications and calls for qualities which no member of the Cabinet, from the Prime Minister down, possesses."
