BATTER UP

(By LARRY STANWOOD)

A mild catastrophe hit the baseball circle in Prince Rupert this week. Following a couple of letters of resignation, the Baseball Association is without an executive.

President W. F. Stone and Secretary Harry Price both tendered their resignations yesterday. One of the main reasons they gave was that neither had been present when elected. Mr. Stone also said he was "too busy" and could not do justice to his position.

Vice-president William Gordon could not be reached for comment by press time.

Hockey Rules Tightened up

HALIFAX 9—Canadian Amateur Hockey Association yesterday put a sting in its rule book for players or team officials who

The rule provides for one-year suspension—with no right of appeal—for a player or official who withdraws from the ice, fails to ice a team or refuses to start play within two minutes, after being ordered to do so by a referee.

Under a new amendment, reinstated professionals will not be allowed to sign cards with other than major or senior clubs if they have been reinstated after January 1 of the playing season.

The top of the batting order will meet starting pitcher Vernon Ciccone, starting pitcher; L. Kristmanson and Don Scherk, relief pitchers; George Barr, first base; Bill Sundberg, second base; Doug Shier, short-stop; Don Scherk, third base; Andy Marshall, left outfield; Stan Cornwell, centre field and Ray Spring, right outfield.

Spares are rookies Fred Christensen, Larry Mathews, Jerry Ford, Glen Carlson and Darryl Young.

The game, which will follow the Kinsmen's delayed sports event at Roosevelt Park, will be announced play-by-play over the public address system.
