Unemployment Here

Jobs in Men

Without Any
and from Alcan

There is no unemployment in Prince Rupert.
National Employment Service office said that all people who work have jobs and
still many jobs to be filled. About 5,000 people in the area are employed.
The need is for skilled
men in the machinist trade;
miners and loggers
are badly needed. And "you need an office worker or clerk in town," an NES
official said.
There are no orders here
for aluminum project," the office revealed. Main reason for lack of transportation
is the lack of the Kitimat
site.
In Lake, hundreds of men arrived in search of work in Alcan. The NES official received reports that many men are living outside "sleeping under trees,"
and for work to begin.
The industry has taken up
work in the employment
and a shortage of help
is anticipated when canning into operation.
Difficulty in obtaining work is due to the housing
and the fact that there is an employment picture
in the province.

Contractors Getting Together to Handle Big Kitimat Project

Twelve Hundred Men to be Employed This Year
1800 After Next March

VANCOUVER (CP) — Largest construction contract ever awarded in British Columbia, building of smelter and development of townsite for the Aluminum Co. of Canada, is expected to be awarded to a group of eight British Columbia firms, it was reported today.

The contract will total well over $200,000,000 when the whole work is completed. The establishment of a city of 50,000 people at Kitimat, eighty miles south of Prince Rupert, is involved.
Eight firms have joined together under the name of Kitimat Constructors to bid on the job. The group includes Emil Anderson, Bennett & White, B. C. Bridge and Dredging Co., Campbell & Bennett, Dawson & Wade, Central Construction, Marwell Construction and Dawson & Hall.
While contracts for the final phase of the great project have not yet been let and it is not known definitely how many men will be needed, contractors said today they expect little difficulty in obtaining workers for the huge job.
Reg. Holland, official of a company holding the contract for initial phases, said more than nine thousand workers from three countries had applied. Only 1200 will be employed this year for the first phases of damming lakes and rivers, building roads, boring tunnels and erecting powerhouses and power lines.
Next March the force will be increased to 1800 and will remain at that figure until the first phase is completed.
The second phase will be smelter building and townsite development.

Address Style Puzzles Expert

MONTREAL (CP)—How would one go about addressing a woman's law firm in their official capacity, is a problem which has Canada's authority on "etiquette-at-top-brass-level" completely stumped.
The group in question is the Montreal law firm of "Mrs." Wilhelmina M. Holmes and "Miss" Joan Gilchrist collectively—the first women's law firm in the province of Quebec, and possibly in Canada.
Howard Measures, the federal government's chief of protocol, wants to know how. When he finds out this precedent-setting bit of information will go into a book he is writing.
In the meantime, not even Holmes and Gilchrist are sure how they will settle the matter. The familiar "messrs" is obviously out. They can't be referred to as "messdames", since only one is married, and for the same reason, "misses" won't do.
So far, the best solution they have been able to settle on is to use the firm name, without titles of any kind.

Reds Retreating Pellmell In Korea

Allies Making Daring Bid For Quick Victory

TOKYO (CP) — United Nations troops today forged a second foothold in Communist Korea and bolstered their original bridgehead in Communist territory. The Reds continued to fall back all along the front.
United Nations forces rammed up the main central Korean highway northwest of captured Chunchon in pouring rain and rolled about two miles beyond the thirty-eighth parallel.
Red opposition was light as an infantry column stabbed to within six miles of Hwachon, former key Chinese bastion eight miles north of the pre-war political boundary.
To the east Americans and French smashed through Chinese screening forces and swept up the Hongchon-Imje road. The thrust opened a direct supply route to the Allied bridgehead across the Choyang River on the east central front.
Link-up with the bridgehead lightened the trap on suicidal Chinese fighting rearguard actions to keep open a six-mile escape route in the mountains near the road.
Captured Chinese said that some of their comrades had committed suicide rather than free any more Allied fire power or risk being shot by their own officers for retreating.

White Sox Keep it up

Title is Topped

NEW YORK (CP)—Chicago's White Sox kept right behind New York's front running Yankees Friday in the American League.
The Sox ran their string of victories to eight by beating Cleveland Indians 6 to 4 while the Yanks overpowered the Philadelphia Athletics 7 to 5.
Don Lenhardt's booming bat ended a six-game losing streak for St. Louis Browns with the Browns nipping Detroit Tigers 4 to 3.
Boston Red Sox crushed the previously unbeaten Conrado Marrero's bid for his sixth pitching triumph, overwhelming the Washington Senators 14 to 2.
Over in the National League the enterprising Brooklyn Dodgers staged a 4 to 3 victory over the Boston Braves, thanks to Pitcher Preacher Rowe who fought off a ninth-inning rally.
Pittsburgh Pirates won a 10 to 1 victory over Chicago Cubs thanks to home runs by Ralph Kiner and George Merkle.
Connie Ryan whacked out a grand slam home run to deep left center field seats in the eleventh inning to give the Cincinnati Reds a 5 to 1 victory over St. Louis Cardinals.

Canada is Building Defence Framework

But Dominion Is Not Ready for Showdown With Russia

By DOUGLAS HOW
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA (CP)—The forces that would defend Canada herself and the headquarters for directing that defence in war are being built up quietly amid the clamor over creation of forces to go abroad.
In the opinion of informed observers, Canada in a number of ways would not be in a good position if war came tomorrow.
What Gen. Omar Bradley said about the United States goes for Canada too; this country isn't ready for a showdown with Russia either.
Canada's air defenses are weak. Her navy, reported in the Mainstay report to be overextended even before Korea, still is committing a relatively large portion of its fleet there. The army's airborne brigade is fit, but air transport for it could become a major headache if an enemy struck hard and often.
The build-up to buttress all three positions is on. By the end of this year major strides will have been made but it probably will be at least a year before the forces are really in a fairly sound fighting position.
The basic premise of defence headquarters thought continues to be the assumption that no large-scale land invasion of Canada is likely in the years
