Spirited Play Marks Pee-wee Hoop Loop

By LARRY STANWOOD
In the second Pee-Wee League basketball game yesterday afternoon, Borden Street School team edged out Civic Centre Arrows 15-12 after an uneventful battle.

While nearly a hundred supporting spectators (Borden Street pupils—mostly girls) cheered and roared, Wong and Arrows combined in the last quarters to pin down the team with two points each. Renshaw was high scorer with 11 points. Guibranson and Leman of the Arrows each shot five.

The scores were not high and the players inexperienced, of course, but there was more enthusiasm among those kids aged 10 to perhaps 14, than one will find on many a senior hoop show. There just was no holding them back.

Each player on his team was possessed with the one thought of winning. Passing was fast, shooting terrific, even if rough and strictly beyond the rules at times. But it was seen easily where Prince Rupert's champion all-stars have come from where this city's future stars will spring.

Meanwhile, the Borden Street cheer gang was no less enthusiastic than the players. They may have been the edge Borden Street needed and had, after each basket for "our" the timbers resounded to such enthusiasm to drive that through a wall of fire to meet his performance.

That, at least, seemed the spirit of the play as every muscle strained, every eye attentive in repetition while beads of perspiration formed without concluding: Borden Street—S. Wong 2, K. Mah, Peterson 2, J. MacLeod, I. Renshaw, F. Warner, J. Scott, R. Eby, G. G. Orlivie, Arrows—D. Leman, R. Strand, Leman, C. Stewart, D. Phillip, K. Thomson, R. Iveson.

Ten Straight For Wings

Chicago Black Hawks went into a tie with the New York Rangers for last place in the National Hockey League by whipping the Montreal Canadiens 5 to 1 Wednesday night.

Detroit Red Wings rang their unbeaten streak to ten straight by squeezing out the New York Rangers 2 to 1 in the circuit's other contest.

Jimmy McFadden scored two goals within less than ten minutes of the first period to give the Hawks a lead they never lost.

Montreal escaped a shut-out at 119:38 in the first period when Elmer Lach, on assists by Maurice Richard and Doug Harvey, scored as Bep Guidolin of the Hawks sat out a penalty.

Rink Pipe Arrives; Moore Again Prexy

With 16,000 feet of pipe arrived for the refrigeration unit of Prince Rupert's new curling rink, members of the Curling Club last night met with enthusiasm to line up working parties.

The entire membership of more than 130 was divided into rinks of four persons each for work parties. When the rink is completed, the groups may be slightly revised for curling.

Meanwhile, Neely Moore remains to head the club as he was unanimously returned as president at last night's election. Other officers are:

Ted Boulter, vice-president; Scott McLaren, treasurer; Dr.
