Mandate Desired By Government, Wismer Says

VICTORIA (CP) — A plebiscite on changes in liquor distribution in B.C. will be held at the next general election in 1953, Attorney-General Gordon Wismer told the Legislature yesterday.

"It is felt a mandate should be obtained from all citizens in the province," he said. "I therefore state on behalf of the government that a plebiscite should and will be held at the next general election. "We should either introduce
