Easy Way of Financing House.

A good many Prince Rupert people who are mechanically inclined have been building their own houses. They spend their spare time nailing boards instead of playing ball. They have found it to be a good kind of recreation, and as a result they have acquired a house without having to pay for it.

By borrowing the money and paying it back in instalments they have paid the same as rent all the time and eventually they will own their own houses.

This method of house building is one that might commend itself to a good many more people. A good many are not aware that they can build in that way. Given a cheap lot and the rest is easy.

Conservative View Of Coalition.

Away back in July J. S. Willison, until recently editor of the Conservative Toronto News, writing in the Canadian Magazine spoke against a coalition government as a general policy. He said:

"Disraeli said that England did not love coalitions. There is not much in the practice of free, constitutional government that Great Britain has not tested. If the judgment of the British people is against coalitions it is because the fruits are faction, irresponsibility, instability, sectionalism and parochialism. They know, because they have learned by experience. In Canada experience is teaching the same lesson. It was perhaps wise and necessary that in the desperate emergency of war all partisan considerations and interests should be set aside in the Mother Country and in Canada. This was not done in the United States, where as great unity of sentiment in support of all military and patriotic objects was developed and maintained as in other countries. But the constitution of the United States, designed to assure popular sovereignty and guard against military despotism, lends itself to autocracy and concentration of effort in war. In war George the Third was not so great an autocrat as was Woodrow the First. Nor do the experiences of the United States in the Civil War and in the Great War necessarily condemn the American constitution.

"If coalitions are valuable in emergencies they do not ensure orderly and responsible government. At Ottawa we begin to have legislation by rhetoric or, as has been said, government by explosion. A score of extremists to the right of the Speaker, uniting with the Opposition, may impose any revolutionary measure or any empirical project upon the country. The Cabinet must submit, resign or order a dissolution of Parliament. The situation would be even less satisfactory if Mr. McKenzie, who leads the Opposition, did not display a considerable degree of common sense and steadiness. Under the two-party system there is some assurance that the common sentiment of the country will be expressed in legislation. Under a coalition, sectionalism thrives and the national interest is subordinated to personal considerations and passing political exigencies. Ministers lie upon a bed of torment and a sense of insecurity pervades the country."

ASK YOURSELF

are you logical in your use of medicine? When your stomach is ailing you take something that reaches the stomach, but when the trouble is in your lungs or breathing passages, do you take something that gets there direct? This is where so many people make a mistake. They swallow remedies into the stomach in a vain attempt to cure an ailment which is of the lungs! Then they wonder why they receive no benefit.

For ailments of the lungs and breathing passages the logical treatment is the use of a remedy that is breathable and therefore capable of reaching the lungs direct.

Peps is that kind of remedy—a breathable remedy in tablet form. When Peps are dissolved in the mouth medicinal vapor is released and breathed to all parts of the bronchial tubes and the minute air cells of the lungs, soothing the inflammation and consequent irritation, healing the sore places and ending the cough.

Next time you are troubled with a cough, sore throat, bronchitis or laryngitis, take Peps and prove for yourself the superiority of the direct treatment. All dealers 50c.

CREDITORS' TRUST DEEDS ACT, R. S. B. C. AND AMENDING ACTS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Robert Lawrence, carrying on business as a contractor at Prince Rupert, British Columbia, has assigned to Michael P. McCaffery of Prince Rupert, B. HON. MACKENZIE KING ENDORSES NEW LOAN Thorough endorsement of the Victory Loan, 1919, is expressed by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party in the Dominion, in a letter addressed to the Minister of Finance, Sir Henry Drayton. This is his letter: "My dear Sir, Henry,—I am pleased to join with you in commending the Victory Loan to the people of Canada.

"It is imperative that Canada's credits should be maintained.

"As the Government finds that borrowing is a necessity to meet existing obligations, it is in every way desirable that the amount required should, if possible, be raised within Canada itself. I hope, therefore, that this loan may be over-subscribed by citizens of the Dominion.

"You appreciate, of course, that in expressing a desire to see the loan a success, such obligation as I may have in the matter of criticizing unnecessary and extravagant expenditures, is increased rather than lessened, and this endorsement is given upon your assurance that the organization of the campaign and everything about it is absolutely and entirely non-political.

"W. L. MACKENZIE KING."

NEW PAPER TOWELS FOR THE SCHOOLS

A meeting of the School Board was held last evening. The business was mostly of a routine nature, such as passing accounts and reading correspondence.

Tenders are to be called for the replacing of the water pipes in the Borden Street School, larger pipes being required in the building.

The city schools are to be provided with sanitary paper towels and the racks for them will be made by the pupils in the manual training school.

Queen Charlotte Islanders cannot do better than mail their printing needs to The News Print shop and get the work done promptly and well.
