TOP ATHLETES-Lionel Conacher, left, and Bobbie Rosenfeld were presented with special awards by the Canadian National Sportsman's Show in Toronto in recognition of their being named Canada's outstanding athletes of the half-century. Jack Sullivan, right, sports editor of The Canadian Press, who originated and conducted the poll, came up from New York, where he is attached to CP's New York bureau, to make the presentations. Miss Rosenfeld received a purse with plaque attached, containing two Canada Savings Bonds, and Conacher—The Big Train—was given a plaque and a fishing outfit.
