NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port — "Prince Rupert, the Key to the Great Northwest"

VOL. XL, No. 72

Pulp Mills Hit-

Shortage

normal.

Of Sulphur

MONTREAL, March 21 (CP)_

R. M. Fowler, president of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, said today that a current shortage of sulphur, used in prohave a major impact on the in-their consumption over the 12-tive sources of sulphur."

"A number of these are promising, but they will take time to develop, possibly 18 to 24 months.

An obvious method of obtaining more sulphur consists in roast-

VICTORIA — The provincial and Ray Gardiner, Shore Work- ticularly at large shipments

ers' secretary. They return this which are being planned

B.C. Basketball Finals

Friday and Saturday

ing pyrite, of which there are

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1951

PRICE FIVE CENTS

JBLE—Thirteen sets of twins in one school is one use the teachers. And that is what they do at Regal School in Toronto. Believed to be a record for twins range in age from 5 to 13. Five sets of twins ade-Grade II. Here are 12 of the sets. The 13th pair (CP PHOTO)

CONVENTION-

legal Fishing Urged at a rate substantially above the level of the base er penalties for illegal fishing were advo- increases in capacity have taken 00 delegates attending the seventh annual place. "Thus the sulphur shortage of United Fishermen and Allied Workers' will be considerably greater essions being held for two weeks in Van- in the supply would indicate."

3. Food costs for fishermen and tendermen, while out on the

In 1949 food used while fish-

PENTICTON vs RUPERT-financing of the trip.

Tickets purchased for April 2 good March 30 only would be owners of vessels.

Shore Workers' after a week at fishing grounds, should be deductible item for income tax proposed a resoluing was deductible from income, but in 1950 the income tax de- many deposits in Canada. ed in illegal pracpartment had ruled this pracfishing licence of tice would be discontinued for tice would be discontinued for most fishermen. Only exception Would Preven en involved for a uspension of the or the same period Convention decided the union "will call for an amendment" to Ton Exports of ownership—and e parties involved the Income Tax Act if present riod of suspension. ruling was not changed.

ation as meriting in, secretary of UFAWU local of iron ore from British Columwhere a fisheraccidentally inside also decided that erman was brought e of UFAWU would ed to render legal Isherman involved.

at consumer ates that "present pionship of British Columbia against the Prince productivity of la- finished today.

he "definite feeling here on the Camosun Friday the fishing indus- afternoon and sail Sunday night Working Rally nadian labor should by the same steamer on their ed by the govern- return south. ight to establish a standard through rgaining."

NGES

don, it decided: the union's opinion. defaulted. period prior to Norman Hooper, former Overanemployment in- waitea manager at Prince Ruits would be op- pert, is coming as manager of the convention's the Penticton team.

Now on Sale

BASKETBALL - B.C. FINALS

IDAY and SATURDAY, MARCH 30 and 31

Penticton vs Prince Rupert

union's resolution Penticton, the team will arrive Floor

While a local guarantee is A three-day rally after workbeing required to bring the ing hours has resulted in laying then headed East. Omegas here, the Gyro Club of the floor of the Sons of Norway points taken up by Penticton entered the finals brought from the former United Zone.

by defeating Vancouver Arctics States Army warehouse. ve-year drivers' li- at Penticton last week-end. As many as 17 men turned out a security measure. Would be opposed Prince Rupert Jets qualified at one time during the first part The men are described as vincingly how this Soviet army thentic evidence that Russia pital after having suffered a once desolate Cache area which dusting, the executive reports. pital. The main hall, which has been sanded, will be oiled and waxed by the men, ready for the dance this week-end.

Mrs. A. W. Lipsin left on to-day's plane for a trip to Vancouver on business.

MacArthur Under Censorship

Washington Must Pass On Further Statements

United Nations in Striking Distance All Along Thirty-eighth Parallel

TOKYO (AP) - Officers at General Douglas ducing sulphite paper pulp, will MacArthur's headquarters were "shocked and surprised" to hear today that the general had been The situation has produced placed under political censorship. At Washington it further problems for the giant mills which, he said in a state- had been announced that further policy statements ment, have made Canada the by MacArthur would have to be referred to Washworld's leading newsprint pro- ington for clearance.

Shock and insensibility were

After the lecture, a practical demonstration was given in ar-was the instructor.

tificial respiration. R. E. Eyolfson first aid attendant at the Co-

St. John Ambulance secretary,

Messrs. John McLean, John

Llewellyn, S. A. Cheeseman, E. V.

Sleep, Albert Eveliegh, R. J.

Stordahl, J. C. Ewart and Ken-

Air Mail Parcel

Service Starting

Industrial first aid classes will are: Mesdames J. N. Smith, J.

Kenneth Slater, an industrial studied at the Thursday night's

The announcement followed supplies will be based on a period statements made at the weekduring which, at times, the mills end as to possible effects of were operating below capacity. United Nations attacks on Comand the general level of sulphur munist China now that South For First Aid inventories at the mills is below

At London it was stated that Canada imports all its sulphur the United Nations was considfrom the United States. Of the ering making a new offer to class of St. John Ambulance in total imports, some 80 per cent Communist China for a nego- the fire hall. has gone to the pulp and paper tiated settlement of the war.

Meantime, South Koreans "Sulphur producers in the have crossed the 38th parallel United States have already in- to a depth of three miles in the formed our mills of a 15- to 20- east and the United Nations per-cent curtailment in ship- forces are within striking disments which will be based on tance all along the line.

month period ending October, 1950," said the Fowler statement. Rowed as "During part of this period, Rowed as the pulp and paper industry of Canada operated at below ca-

"Since the middle of 1950, the With 3,000 pounds of oolichans industry has been operating at in the hold and a broken rudder, capacity and is currently oper- George Wesley "took to the oars" ating at a rate substantially to bring the Frara into port last E. Smith, M. M. Sleep, E. Van period. In addition, substantial Crossing over from Naas River Wesley and his brother Albert were caught in a gale which whipped and lashed them for several hours. than any percentage reduction "I guess it looked kind of silly using oars on a fishing boat, The industry, meanwhile, has said Wesley, "but we were lucky stand relayed to the federal been "actively pursuing alternato have them." Oolichans are running "quite heavy" in the Naas River, he Sinclair, George Redhead, J. W. said, but only three other boats are fishing there. Wesley sold Speers, Robert Strachan, Conrad his catch to Bacon Fisheries where some of the "little fish" neth Slater. are being smoked and others

These fish, which run once a year, are still strangers to biologists who have little data on their habits until they begin their migration in great schools up coastal rivers each spring.

Oolichans resemble small herring in size but have a much Prince Rupert delegates still government is taking steps to weaker bone structure and are post service will be commenced legal fishing, listed in Vancouver are Thomas Park- prevent, if possible, the export more oily than the herring. And in Canada April 2. Parcels from they are found only once a year. 8 ounces to five pounds will be Many of the coast natives op- handled at 90c to $5. and northern representative, bia. Aim is being directed parerate "oolichan camps," such as at Red Bluff, on the Naas, where > an aboriginal product of the In-"But I like them best smoked," said Bill Bacon, smacking his lips as he pointed to rows and rows > of "strung" fish, ready for the smoke-house. "They melt in your Penticton Omegas will be here this Friday and It takes a week to smoke-cure the oolichans over a slow-burn-Saturday to defend the Senior "B" basketball cham- ing wood fire, he said.

Rupert Jets. The finals will be played those nights are actually below at the Civic Centre here, arrangements having been First Wounded

VANCOUVER (CP)—Army head- vation of peace. quarters here said that two The land defences of Western hand. wounded members of Canada's Europe are transparently weak. on Friday by air from Japan and planting a fatalistic lassitude.

They were the first Canadian COULD TAKE EUROPE

Spring cleaning has taken hold that they were "heading for war." 33 Red divisions inside Germany. and bruises and cuts to his face mills finish rough lumber which

M. D. McNaughton, a former Montrealer and son of Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, has been named commanding officer of the 1st Field Regiment, RCHA. A Second World War veteran he has been chief instructor at the artillery school at Shilo, (CP from National De-

"SMOKY" SMITH BACK IN ARMY

lumbia Cellulose Company, gave a demonstration on eye tech-"Smoky" Smith V.C. has re-en- to 30, and 16 were in the 61-70 nique and the examination therelisted in the Canadian Army but bracket. One elderly offender With an increasing enrolment this time with the rank of names, those listed on the at- "sergeant." He is joining retendance sheet by J. C. Ewart, cruiting staff at Edmonton.

Hipp, E. M. Yelland, Alice Denton, Helen Ford, Olga Kronhaus, Relected Green: the Misses Jean Smith, Dorothy Smith, Vickie Lewis; and

OTTAWA—The Canadian gov-Eyelfson, J. C. Franks, E. Ker- ernment considered and rejected bodily harm, one of manslaughmode, William Rothwell, John an offer from New Zealand to ter, one of wounding, 19 of dis-Davidson, Robert Morris, D. K. sell Canada 1,200,000 pounds of orderly conduct on the streets. butter, it has been announced The police laid narcotics char-Whiting, L. O. Lycette, John Mor- here. The butter could not have ges against six women. Two were rison, Gunnar Sandness, Ernest been delivered in time to relieve arrested for housebreaking and

The statement here was made into court. after T. C. A. Hislop, New Zealand High Commissioner, had said at Prince Rupert and elsewhere on the Pacific Coast that SNIP AIGSKO New Zealand was prepared to re-start providing enough appli- sell that quantity of butter to Logs South Canada at 54c to 56c a pound.

cants are received, the executive The butter could not have been here before late in April, it is stated, and by that time the of mining and timber enterprise. OTTAWA-A new air parcel price would have been 65c.

quarters for more than 150 years. Admiralty Island in southeastern the fish are rendered down to grease. Oolichan grease, strictly Another Year of Peace many as a delicacy, used in place of butter or lard in cooking. In Europe—Danger Over weather which would affect log towing. He spent some time at sixty-mile contract south from Here is an up-to-the-minute appraisal of war and peace prospects as viewed from one of the world's most vulnerable areas—Germany and Austria. It was written jointly by Daniel de Luce, chief of the Associated Press bureau in Germany, and Richard O'Regan, AP chief in Austria.

By DANIEL DE LUCE and RICHARD O'REGAN

This looks like another year of peace for Europe the possibility of delivering Alas- Abhou Creek, a tributary of the despite Soviet guns bristling on the Elbe. That, ka pulp word to the Watson Cottonwood River which will be bridged. Expectation is that hedged by ifs and buts, is the calculated forecast of some men who are watchdogs of western security on Back in Canada both sides of the Iron Curtain.

favor of the temporary preser- curious omission, if you assume

The worst danger may be over.

are coming out of winter quar- or four are in Austria. The Army had withheld an- ters in East Germany for more with the women's committee who Eastern Canada." They spent Yet in Czechoslovakia, on the The West's occupation air force in the fall. The ambulance was is being cut in the hundreds of are cleaning windows, dishes, and four hours at Shaughnessy Hos- flank of these forces, no Russian is outnumbered about four to called and he was taken to hos- small sawmills in the area tribudivisions are stationed. It is a a westward attack is near at

Furthermore, troop strength special brigade had arrived here But the will to resist is sup- on Russia's line of communications through Poland is static. High 4;11 At most, three Soviet divisions

Thus far, Allied agents behind nouncement of their arrival as invasion training. On paper, the Iron Curtain report they Ernest Unwin is a patient in lous sizes are now being opermilitary men demonstrate con- have been unable to find au- the Prince Rupert General Hos- ated at Prince George in the wincial government when Prince George Clippers of last week, with refreshments walking wounded. They were not group could take Europe in three plans the Big Blow-up for 1951. collapse on the CPR wharf Sun- has become Prince George's plans the Big Blow-up for 1951. being provided by the women. | identified. The Army said only weeks—if Stalin wants global Only eight Allied divisions face day. He sustained a broken nose "lumber row." These planing

(Continued on page 3)

Luck Seen as Engine And Coaches Not Hit

Eastbound Passenger Escapes With Minor Consequences-No One Injured

knocked out at 11:30 last night when the eastbound Canadian National Railways passenger train was struck by a rock slide near Kwinitsa.

WINNIPEG 1(CP)—One out of every eight persons arrested in Winnipeg last year was a woman Chief Constable Charles Mac-Iver's 1950 report shows that 679 women were jailed during the year. They were accused of offences ranging from drunken driving to housebreaking.

Twelve of the women offenders were listed as having "es- by noon. caped lawful custody." Ninetyfour were girls between 16 and NEW Westminister - Private 20. Another 220 ranged from 21 of was listed as between 71 and 80. Drunkenness on city streets was the most frequent offence. A total of 151 women were arrested on that count. Another 106 were held for violations of Manitoba Liquor Control

Two women were charged with itsa. driving motor vehicles while drunk. And there were three cases of assault occasioning Girbay, Kenneth Welsh, Ernest the present shortage, it is stated. light fingers brought another 74

M. P. Olsen, pioneer promoter Canadian butter supply would be in Northern British Columbia, is back in full swing again. Fur- in the city after having spent the there, 54c to 56c would have past month at Aero camp on the Coola and Ocean Falls. wholesale price. Retail Queen Charlotte Islands. He is on his way to Vancouver.

Of late Mr. Olsen has been in-Governor's Island in New York teresting himself in the possibilharbor has been an army head- ity of transporting logs from Alaska to pulp mills in the Pa- supplies for the dam construccific Northwest. His project is tion are being moved over the to make the log deliveries by road which is to be hard surfaclarge log carrying vessels of ed. One hundred men are emocean going type which would ployed and heavy, up-to-date eliminate delays by stress of equipment is being used. Washington, D.C., last year on Prince George on the Pacific the project and appeared before Great Eastern Railway extenthe House of Representatives sion. Some forty of 200 men who judiciary sub-committee on will be employed are on the job.

interviewed the logging depart- mile section north from Quesment of Columbia Cellulose on nel, the meeting place being showers, winds, light southeast.

THE WEATHER

Wednesday, March 28, 1951 17:28

pital where he was revived.

Two cars were derailed and telegraph lines were

No one was hurt. Cars derailed were unoccupied first baggage car and mail car. The CNR superintendent's office said the rocks "just missed" the passing locomotive and rolled under the wheels of the first car, derailing it and the car behind it.

The cars were replaced in three hours with help of an auxiliary unit dispatched from Prince Rupert. The train lost eight hours, a CNR spokesman said.

Telegraph, long distance telephone and Canadian Broadcasting Corporation lines were out this morning but were replaced Radiophone facilities of the were used for long-distance calls during the interruption. "It was lucky the rocks didn't hit the engine," it was said at the superintendent's office. "It

Northwest Radio Telephone Co.

Engineer on the "lucky train" was J. M. Cheater, A. H. Staiger was fireman. Recently, a snowslide, still blocking the highway, covered could have been bowled over."

Tonight's train, due from the east at 10:15, was reported this morning to be 30 minutes late.

the road for 150 feet at Kwin-

Construction of new transportation arteries north, south and west is augmenting the era of great prosperity which the lumber industry continues to stimulate in the Prince George area, according to Frank Clark, retired railwayman and Liberal organizer at large, who has been in the city for the past couple of days on his way to Bella

Southwestward from Vanderhoof, Fred Mannix & Co. is making spectacular progress in the building of a road to the Aluminum Co. of Canada damtance of sixty miles. Already

The construction south from Mr. Olsen, while here today, Prince George will meet the 22-1952 will see the PGE completed into Prince George.

Meanwhile, work also pro-Prince Rupert - Cloudy with ceeds on the Hart Highway which will connect Prince George with Dawson Creek through Pine Pass and bring the Peace River site on the Nechako River, a discountry tributary to central British Columbia instead of to Edmonton as it has always been. 21.0 feet Hon. E. C. Carson, minister of public works, has promised that 4.0 feet the Hart Highway will be com-8.5 feet pleted by September.

Thirty planing mills of vartary to Prince George. There are now 800 sawmills operating between Prince Rupert and the Alberta boundary, says Mr.

Mr. Clark puts the population of Prince George now at about 9,000. Like Prince Rupert, it is suffering from congestion and housing lack.

HAVE YOU TRIED 99 LATELY?