Copyright by Public Ledger

By Agatha Christie

INSTALMENT XXXL

(Continued)

"What a --- liar you are," said Socks without emotion.

brought over by airplane with my of her depth. "Is that like seals?" of wire in Jimmy's hand soon best friend as pilot. This is secret "Not amphibious," said Mr. saw to that. One by one the drawhistory I'm telling you, Socks. Bateman. "Ambidextrous means ers yielded to his manipulations Will you ask Jimmy Thesiger using either hand equally well." there if you don't believe me. Not "Oh!" said Socks, looking at that I'd be putting any trust in Sir Oswald with respect "Can what he'd say."

George Lomax came down with- either hand." out his false teeth? That's what | "But not with both at once?" I want to know."

A Subscription

Lady Coote, "Nasty things, I saw subtle," them myself. It's a wonder this 'It would be a grand thing now poor boy wasn't killed."

said Jimmy.

sian Countess there of beauty," said Socks. "And that she vamped Bill."

"Some of the things she said about Budapest were too dreadful, said Lady Coote. "I shall never forget them. Oswald, we must send a subscription."

Sir Oswald grunted. "I'll make a note of it, Lady Coote," said Rupert Bateman.

sons!

week.

in family budgets.

"Thank you, Mr. Bateman.

as a thank offering. I can't ima- stairs to dress for dinner. gine how Sir Oswald escaped be- After dinner Sir Oswald meumonia."

Sir Oswald.

burglars," said Lady Coote.

meet one face to face! How thrilling!" murmured Socks.

Jimmy. "It's damned painful." And "I know, dear. So you always he patted his right arm gingerly, say. You owe Mr. O'Rourke an-Lady Coote.

But it's been the most confoun- so he hoped) down the stairs. He ded nuisance having to do every- made one brief visit to the dinthing with the left hand. I'm no ing room and then found his way good whatever with it."

up to be ambidextrous," said Sir ute or two, he set to work. Most

Is it true," said Socks, "that "Certainly; I can write with

"That would not be practical," said Sir Oswald shortly.

"No," said Socks thoughtfully "There were two revolvers," said "I suppose that would be a bit too in a Government department, "Oh, I was born to be hanged," observed Mr. O'Rourke, "if one could keep the right hand from knowing what the left hand was

"Can you use both hands?" "No, indeed. I'm the most righthanded person that ever was."

"But you deal cards with your left hand," said the observant Bateman, "I noticed that the other night.'

"Oh, but that's different entirely," said Mr. O'Rourke easily. After Midnight

A gong with a somber note pealfeel one ought to do something ed out and every one went up-

Valuable

Buying Guide

DEFORE you order dinner at a restaurant, you trip by motor-car, you pore over road maps. Before you start out on a shopping trip, you should consult the advertisements in this paper. For the same rea-

The advertising columns are a buying guide to you in the purchase of everything you need-including amusements! A guide that saves your time and conserves your energy; that saves useless steps and guards against false ones; that puts the s-t-r-e-t-c-h

The advertisements in this paper are so interesting, it is difficult to see how anyone could overlook them . . . fail to profit by them. Just check with yourself and be sure that you are reading the advertisements regularly—the big ones and the little ones.

For example, read the grocery store "ads" this

Avoid time-wasting, money-wasting, detours on the road to Merchandise value. Read the advertising "road maps."

It is time well spent . . . always.

consult the bill-of-fare. Before you take a long ing shot-letting alone die of Lady Cootes, Mr. Bateman and Mr. O'Rourke played bridge and Jim-"Don't be foolish, Maria," said my passed a flirtatious evening with Socks. The last words Jim-"I've always had a horror of cat my heard as he retreated up the staircase that night were Sir Os-player, Maria."

"Don't you believe it," said And her reply:

"How is the poor arm?" inquired other pound Oswald. That's right." It was some two hours later "Oh, pretty well all right now. that Jimmy went noiselessly (or to Sir Oswald's study. There, af-"Every child should be brought ter listening intently for a minof the drawers of the desk were "A liar? I? And the jewels "Oh!" said Socks, somewhat out locked, but a curiously shaped bit

> Drawer by drawer he sorted except by sheer luck. through methodically, being careful to replace everything in the sure that he had relocked them same order. Once or twice he securely. He knew Rupert Bateremained undisturbed.

The last drawer was looked through. Jimmy now knew-or ence. could have known had he been paying attention-many interesting details relating to steel; but he had found nothing of what he wanted-a reference to Herr Eb- only play up." erhard's invention or anything that could give him a clue to the identity of the mysterious No.

He had, perhaps, hardly hopes that he would. It was an chance and he had taken it-but he had not expected much result-

FAINT, DIZZY SPELLS Had To Sleep Propped Up In Bed

Mrs. Norman Bishop, Salisbury, N.B., writes:- "I was troubled with faint down I would suffer terribly with smothering spells. I got so bad I had to sleep propped up in bed.

and nerves, and that I needed a good heart tonic. "I was advised to take and I had not taken one box when ! could He down and sleep like a child." Price, 50c. a box at all druggists and dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited

He tested the drawers to make ing the door behind him and loc- arships to every child of every solking it. For a moment he thought dier but merely to choose a limited he heard a sound quite near him number, basing the selection upon but decided he had been mistaken, the academic promise of the child. He felt his way noiselessly along the great hall. Just enough light Wore Shootings dows to enable him to pick his

Again he heard a soft sound—he Seven People Are Dead and Two On heard it quite certainly this time and without the possibility of making a mistake. He was not alone in the hall. Some one elsewas there, moving as stealthily as he was. His heart beat suddenly way without stumbling into any-

With a sudden spring he jumpto the electric switch and which passed close to him. turned on the lights. The sudden glare made him blink-but he saw plainly enough. Not four feet Kussian Pilot away stood Rupert Bateman.

(To Be Continued Tomorrow)

Canadian Legion Billiard Winner

The Billiard League fixture of last Thursday evening was finally completed last night, when J. Hillman, Grotto, beat G. P. Tinker, Canadian Legion, 250 to 222, in the last outstanding game. The Legion won the fixture by an aggregate of 1168

A. A. Easson, Elks, beat Col. S. P. McMordie, Canadian Legion, 250 to 152, last night, in the fourth game of Tuesday night's fixtuure. It is William Mitchell and G. P. Tinker will be played tonight, in addition to the regular fixture between the Elks and Grotto. Following is the standing to date for the second half of the schedule:

Canadian Legion

Tilden Falls Before Sixth Rank Player

CANNES, France, Feb. 6. - Bi filden, United States tennis chamnion, was beaten yesterday by E. C. Peters, sixth ranking British player, W. J. Nelson (G) in one of the biggest upsets ever witnessed on the Riviera. The score was 9-7, 8-6.

English League, First Division Yesterday's Scores Portsmouth 3, Bolton Wanderers

Manchester City 1. Everton 2. Aston Villa 1, Burnley 2. Derby County 4, Westham Uni-

English League, Second Division Reading 1, Oldham Athletic 1 Notts Forest 1, Millwall 1. Barnsley 1, Bradford 1.

Investigate Relations Between Church and State in Great Britain.

LONDON, Feb. 6- The Church Assembly, by a overwhelmingly majority yesterday adopted a motion to investigate relations between the church and state in England. The vote was 382 to 105.

The motion declares this fundamental principle that the church should have the right to formulate its faith in dogma and arrange the expression of that faith in its form of worship.

Free Education For Children of Former Soldiers

VICTORIA, Feb. 6 .- The governstopped to listen, fancying he man's powers of minute observa- ment plans to assist education of heard some distant sound. But he tion and glanced round the room ex-soldiers' dependent children proto make sure that he had left no vide for the expenditure of $12,000 incriminating trace of his pres- this year and for educational care of from 75 to 100 students, Hon. "That's that," he muttered to Joshua Hinchliffe, minister of eduhimself softly. "Nothing there cation, explained in the legislature Well, perhaps I'll have better luck when the bill was considered in tomorrow morning-if the girls committee. He told the house that the scheme was purely selective. It He came out of the study, clos- was not the intention to give schol-

Verge of Death

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 .- Seven people are dead and two on the brink of death as the result of recent shootings in this city. Yesterday Philip Meagher, when engaged in his work, was shot dead from a small coupe

Takes Charge Eielson Rescue

SEATTLE, Feb. 6.—Word has been received here that Pilot Strapnoff and another Russian aviator have Over Tobacconists arrived at the scene of the wrecked Eielson plane to take charge of the Eielson plane to take charge of the work on behalf of the Soviet government. For the past several days no digging has been possible owing to the bad weather.

Compromise On Unemployment Bill Offered

LONDON, Feb. 6.-A compromise expected the final game between proposal on the unemployment insurance bill has been offered by the House of Commons to the House of Lords to avert the crisis which threatened a political upheaval. Under the compromise bill the scheme will be effective for three years instead of indefinitely as originally proposed or for one year as the Lords may amend it.

Billiard Averages

G. P. Tinker (CL) D. Brown (G) M. M. McLachlan (G) ... 12 2759 230 . W. Scott (CL) Stephens (E) C. Balagno (E) G. Waugh (G) 14 3059 219 M. Andrews (CL) .18 3849 213 R. Young (CL) F. G. Pyle (CL) .12 2544 212 S. P. McMordie (CL) 6 1229 205 A. Murray (CL) .13 2648 204 A. Donald (E) H. Pillsbury (CL) G. Howe (G)

Austria has six large prisons, five for men, one for women, in which only persons sentenced to penal servitude of more than one year are kept. Besides these, there are 16 prisons connected with the principal law courts, and more than 200 district jails.

FLOUR For All Your BAKING

"TAKE off the blindfold!" he cried. "Ken the other chocolate bars for someboot else. This one is so good I know it man be Rowntree's York Milk!"

Anyone would be blind indeed who couldn't spot the superiority of Rowntree's York Mile It is so smooth, so distinctive in flavour, a utterly delicious, that it marks a new standard of milk chocolate goodness. Try it yourself Register for vourself the wholesome, velver perfection of this new chocolate bar. You Milk has a quality all its own-it will open your eyes!

You cannot It enjoys a buy a better world wide gin for reputation for quality. JOSEPH & JOHN VICKERS & CO., Ltd.

This advertisement is not published or displayed by Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

LONDON 1750 ENGLAND